Alcyon Announces Installation of Sound Equipment

The Alcyon theater of Highland Park announces that the installation of perfected vitaphone, movietone, and talking picture equipment has been completed. The Alcyon is the first theater in the north shore villages to have complete sound equipment.

This Sunday, December 2, has been set as the opening date for the "talkies." In "Melody of Love," the picture to be shown, the characters talk, and there will be an occasional song by Walter Pidgeon, whose vocal abilities had remained hidden until the advent of talking pictures. Tom Dugan also is in the cast.

"Melody of Love" will be shown at the Alcyon for three days, Sunday, Monday, and Tuesday, December 2, 3, and 4. In addition to the regular picture the Alcyon has booked a program of "talkie" acts including Van and Schenck singing popular songs, Abe Lyman and famous "Good News" orchestra; the Newells in a comedy skit, and movietone news.

On Wednesday and Thursday, December 5 and 6, the Alcyon will show another talking picture, "The Lion and the Mouse," starring Lionel Barrymore.

"Confession," "Casino Gardens," "Phipps," and "Gus Edwards' Song Revue" are four two-reel all-talking pictures recently completed by Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer.

WILL CO-STAR AGAIN

Charles Farrell and Janet Gaynor, who co-starred in "Seventh Heaven," picked by Photoplay as the best picture in 1927, and in "Street Angel," also ranked as one of the best recent productions, are to be reunited again next year by the Fox Film corporation.

James Murray has the leading role in "The Play Goes On," to be started soon at Universal City.
