Inquisitive News Girl

Community church that Winnetka is going to have in the near future. What better can we do than to help?

Mrs. John VanderVries, 968 Pine street: It seems to me a splendid opportunity for so many women of Winnetka who do not have time to make their own Christmas gifts to obtain some very lovely things. And since the Congregational women co-operated so cordially when we had our Rummage sale recently, we Episcopal women should be very glad to reciprocate. I am certainly planning to do some shopping in Yule Lane.

Dr. J. W. F. Davies, 652 Lincoln avenue: From the remarks I have heard made by the women to the effect that though they get tired, they wouldn't be out of it; that the people with whom they become acquainted prove so fine; that there is a thrill in working together; there seems to be a value in a Holiday Shop greater than the money raised. The finest thing about it is this common effort of all where each learns to know her neighbor and feels her effort counts toward the goal for which all are striving.

That everyone may find something to suit his taste or pocketbook in Yule Lane is evidenced by the following variety of Shops; Arts and Crafts by Winnetka men; Aprons and Utilities; Bags and Baskets; Books and Cards; Boudoir; Candy; Children's Requirements; Country House Furnishings; Dolls; Fancy Boxes; Flowers and Plants; Linens; Pictures and Silhouettes; Stop and Shop; Traveling Accessories. And then to add to the jollity, the Street Venders, the Strolling Singers, the Magician, the Punch and Judy Show, with a dinner on Wednesday evening at Yule Lane Inn. Reservations for dinner must be made at the office of Community House by Monday noon.

Imports of crude rubber into the United States during the month of October amounted to 42,515 tons, an increase over the same month in 1927 of 11,205 tons.

Frank M. Anderson, 910 Spruce street, who has been very ill for ten days, is now convalescing and is able to receive callers.

Mr. and Mrs. Victor Elting of 830 Mt. Pleasant court entertained the members of their family at a Thanksgiving dinner in their home.
