Chicago Likes "The Five o'Clock Girl"; Starts Sixth Week

Chicago has quite taken "The Five O'Clock Girl" into its heart as she ends the fifth week of her engagement at the Woods theater with flying colors.

A picture of blonde loveliness is Mary Eaton who dances and sings her way through "The Five O'Clock Girl" as the modern Cinderella who forgets her duties in a cleaner's shop every afternoon at the strike of five, to telephone her Prince Charming who is totally in the dark as to her identity. The object of her affection is Oscar Shaw whose engaging masculine deportment and abundant sense of light-comedy acting are his assets and he cash in on them to their full value. Never has there been a more engaging dumbbell than little Susie of the cleaner's shop as portrayed by Pert Kelton. Her quaint comedy in the ritzy night club generates whole-hearted laughter and when she burlesques a Spanish dance the audience fairly whoops.

Jack Norton has the role of the valet and he makes of it one continuous laugh winner.

Distinctive Musical Instruments

A PREFACE

In the first week of December we commence our Christmas Advertising. Our aim will be to convey to you the thought that—in keeping with our policy—you will find here only, "Distinctive Musical Instruments."

We stress no particular "name." We have chosen only such instruments that we believe to be a privilege to offer to a particular clientele.

Furthermore, we wish to convey to you the advantage of choosing a musical gift.

And last, but by no means least, we want you to consider what it means to you in personal comfort, to make your choice in pleasant, restful surroundings (preferably in the evening) with the added advantage of courteous, un-hurried attention given to you by MUSICIANS qualified to assist you in judging TONE and PERFORMANCE.

—And Remember

We are a North Shore Institution, owned and operated by residents of this community.

Greater Help Than 10 Men!

Wax-polishes your floors better and more quickly than ten men could do it, the old way. It polishes entirely by itself. You merely guide it with a light touch. No pushing; no bearing down. As easily as walking over them, your floors are burnished to satiny lustre.

Johnson's Electric Floor Polisher

Improved model reduced from $42.50 now because of tremendous popularity and increased production. . . . $29.50

FREE: $2.40 1/2-gal. of Johnson's Wax and $1.50 applying mop.
