

Plan Fourth Year for Foreign Affairs Schools

This is the fourth year for the Evanston Schools of Foreign Affairs, which, this season, according to present plans will be held at Plymouth hall, 1417 Judson avenue, Evanston, January 3, 10, 17, 24, 31.

Mrs. George H. Tomlinson, chairman for the Schools of Foreign Affairs this season, already has called a committee of the co-operating organizations, the Woman's club of Evanston, The Evanston League of Women Voters and the international relations department of the league, the Business and Professional Woman's club of Evanston, and the Woman's Christian Temperance Union, and plans are well underway. The Evanston Rotary club is supplying a speaker for one session, it is announced.

Three sessions will be held on each of the five Thursdays in January for which topics for discussion will be: "Latin America," "The British Commonwealth," "Disarmament," "Italy," "The Press and International Understanding."

GIVE MUSICALE SUNDAY

Mr. and Mrs. William Sherman Hay of 645 Sheridan road are giving a musicale, an "Evening with Schubert," at Indian Hill club tomorrow.

Mrs. Emory Cobb Andrews, 785 Willow street, has returned from the East where she has been visiting her sons for two weeks. They, Wayne and Robert, will be home shortly to spend the Christmas holidays.

David Burnham, 536 Roslyn road, Kenilworth returned last Thursday from Princeton to spend Thanksgiving with his mother, Mrs. Claude G. Burnham.

MOST YOUNG LADIES WILL EXPECT MELACHRINO ON THE 25TH

CERTAINLY, the gentlemen will admit that on this important day, which comes only once a year, no ordinary cigarette will do. The gift must be Melachrino—the mild, perfect Turkish cigarette!

Melachrino's quality is so definitely superior, that even the most critical young lady will feel the subtle compliment you pay her with your gift. The cigarettes have CORK tips, STRAW tips or plain ends. They are society's choice for the bridge party, the dinner and all other occasions.
