

Name B. E. DeMurg New Manager for the Georgian Hotel

The Georgian hotel, Evanston, announces the appointment of a new manager in the person of B. E. DeMurg, a member of a well known family of hotel keepers in Switzerland, who was manager of the Lake Shore Drive hotel in Chicago when that hostelry was chosen as the abode of Queen Marie of Roumania during her visit there.

Mr. DeMurg, who, during his twelve years in America has served as manager of the Millbrook Inn, in Dutchess county, N. Y., and of the Lake Placid Inn in the Adirondacks, assumed his duties in Evanston December 1 when the resignation of the former manager, Matthew Szabody was effective.

The new Georgian manager comes to Evanston with thorough understanding of the important matters of cuisine and service.

She Is Praised

Miss Ada Belle McCleery, superintendent of the Evanston hospital, has won the respect of the large majority of people who know of her work, but especially of the business and professional men on the board of directors. W. W. Buchanan, president of the board, in words of praise following her report at the annual meeting of the hospital association credited her with the ability of a large business executive. "She has the analytical mind of an executive, and at the same time the nurse's human sympathy," he said.

Latest figures show there are 144 religious denominations in Illinois, as compared with 126 ten years ago.

Prof. Hilton Ira Jones Gives Talk at New Trier

Prof. Hilton Ira Jones of Wilmette, research chemist with offices in the Kimball building, Chicago, spoke to the students of New Trier High school at an assembly Monday morning. Professor Jones explained the commercial uses of chemistry and outlined various processes used in commercial chemistry work. Llewellyn Jones, a sophomore at New Trier, is the son of Professor Jones. His daughter, Mrs. Clyde Peaster of Glencoe, and his son, Haydn, also are New Trier graduates.
