Beacons Atop Xmas Trees Light Way for Santa's Call

Those beacon lights at the top of the tall trees in the three Winnetka parks, which have been so beautifully decorated for the Christmas holidays, are not for the benefit of aviators, it is announced.

They are for the guidance of Santa Claus, it appears, for whose visit to Winnetka this season, greater preparations have been made than ever before.

The tree decorations in the parks were provided by the Winnetka Chamber of Commerce, its committee in charge of the work having for its chairman, O. L. Porter. The Chamber furnishes the decorations, which were so effectively arranged by members of the Village electrical department, and the current for lighting the trees every night, is being furnished by the village.

Winnetka stores are also decorated for the Christmas holidays, where appropriate stocks for the season's trade are being displayed.

Most of the stores, it is announced, will be open evenings until Christmas, beginning tonight.
