Editor, WINNETKA TALK:

The inspiring success in all features of the Yule Lane Shops at Community House, December 4 and 5, is due to the generous co-operation of the general public, the workers in the shops, the merchants of the village of Winnetka, and very conspicuously WINNETKA TALK. Deep appreciation is herewith expressed, and it is wished to name in addition those of the merchants generously donating of their special lines—The florists, Ilg, Mueller, Borovica, and Edwards; Rapp Bros.; Beach and Geils; Voltz Grocery; Atlantic & Pacific Tea Company; Piggly Wiggly; and Duncan Studios.

The net proceeds of the sales will exceed $5,500.

Mrs. John R. Montgomery, general chairman.

PLAN XMAS PAGEANT

The annual Christmas Pageant will be held at the Winnetka Congregational church, Sunday evening, December 23, at 4:30 o'clock. Mrs. Glenn Bull is directing the presentation.

Plan Christmas Parties
for Sunday School Pupils

The annual Christmas party of the Sunday school of the North Shore Methodist church, Glencoe, will be held Friday, December 21, at the church. Saturday afternoon, December 22, the beginners' and the primary departments will have their Christmas party. Santa Claus has promised to be present at both parties.

TO SPEND HOLIDAYS HERE

Miss Dixie Douglas, daughter of the Scott Morgan Douglasses of 20 Indian Hill road, is expected to return next Friday to spend the holidays with her parents. Miss Douglas attends National Park seminary in Washington, D. C. Her brother, Richard, returned recently with Ray Ickes and William Woollett from Culver Military academy. Culver was closed last week because of an outbreak of influenza.

Miss Kathleen Air and her mother will spend a few days at Christmas time with Mr. and Mrs. Robert D. Air of Kansas City, Mo. Mr. Air is Miss Kathleen Air's brother.
