Sarett Vice-President of the Midland Authors

Lew Sarett, whom the North Shore still claims as its own, despite his "absence" of many months at his hermitage in the north woods near Laona, in Forest County, Wis., was elected a vice president of the Society of Midland Authors at its annual meeting of recent date held at the Tavern. Clara Ingram Judson of Evanston was made treasurer of the society. Douglas Malloch, who frequently comes to Evanston to give programs, was reelected president of the organization, and other vice presidents are Edgar J. Goodspeed, Illinois; George Ade, Indiana; Edwin Ford Piper, Iowa; William Allen White, Kansas; Walter J. Muilenberg, Michigan; Joseph Warren Beach, Minnesota; Jay William Hudson, Missouri; Edmund Vance Cook, Ohio. The secretary is Elizabeth Knobel.

Announce U. S. Exam for Immigration Patrol Jobs

The Civil Service commission has announced an examination for immigration patrol inspector, applications for which will be received until December 31.

The examination will be held in numerous cities in this state. The entrance salary is $1,800 a year. Higher-salaried positions are filled through promotion.

Appointees will be required to perform guard duty in coast and border territory for the purpose of detecting and preventing the illegal entry of aliens into the United States.

Full information may be obtained from the United States Civil Service commission, Washington, D. C., or from the secretary of the United States Civil Service board at the post office or custom house in any town in this state.

For the Grownups

This year's candy gift must be smart and sophisticated—dressed in a Tony Sarg hand-painted box, an imported chest of hand-tooled metal, an art moderne makeup box, or a wrapping of hand-blocked paper.

And for Everybody

The one most looked for and most enjoyed gift is always a box of newly home-made sweets in the variety of tantalizingly different kinds—many exclusive—which have made Beach & Geils the town's candy center.
