Goes to Capital

Mrs. Martin Kent Northam, who di- rected the western division of the Hoover-Curtis Volunteer clubs during the recent political campaign, has been in Washington on business for several days. Mrs. Northam has received the highest approbation of the leaders of the Republican party for the great ex- cellence of her work, and has in her possession interesting personal photo- graphs, autographed in expression of their regard for her effort, by Presi- dent-Elect and Mrs Hoover. She is at present directing the compilation of the story of the women's campaign to be sent to Mrs. Hoover.

SKOKIE CIRCLE TO MEET
 The Skokie Circle will hold an in- formal meeting at 2 o'clock on Monday, December 17, at the home of the chair- man, Mrs. W. F. Beguelin, 1456 Scott avenue. All members are asked to come, if only for a few moments.

Elizabeth Jenkins, 630 Lake avenue, and Margaret Gordon will entertain thirty guests at bridge Saturday, Dec- ember 15, at Winnetka Woman's club.
