

Lee Says:—

JUST a friendly CHRISTMAS greeting AND best wishes for A HAPPY NEW YEAR

One man here in Winnetka says that last year he made out his Christmas list and supplied all the gifts he could. Then he just brought it down here and got a Sheaffer fountain pen for everyone else on the list. A Sheaffer fountain pen is a fine gift for anyone.

When people ask us for a gift suggestion for someone who "has everything anyway" we usually take them over to our stationery counter. There's an unusually fine line of stationery from which to select this year. Want some?

How are your friends going to know you're thinking about them on Christmas and New Year's unless you send them a card? You have the friends, and we have the cards. Let's get together.

William H. Weld, 90, Dies Friday at His Son's Home

Willard H. Weld, aged father of Herbert W. Weld, 315 Sunset road, died last Friday, December 14, at the home of his son here. Mr. Weld was 90 years old. He came to live with his son in Winnetka four years ago from Lockport, N. Y., his old home.

Besides the son here Mr. Weld is survived by another son, Harry B. Weld, of Philadelphia, Pa.; two daughters, Mrs. Helen W. Munson, of Chicago, and Miss Emma S. Weld, of Philadelphia, and nine grandchildren. Funeral services were held at the residence, 315 Sunset road, Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Dr. George P. Magill, former pastor of the Wilmette Presbyterian church, and Dr. Raymond Huston, pastor of the Second Presbyterian church of Evanston, officiated. Another service was held on Sunday at Lockport, N. Y., where burial took place.

Bobby Telfer, 842 Cherry street, arrived home Wednesday from Dakota, Ill., where he attends school, to spend the holidays with his parents.
