Mrs. Rose E. Richardson Dies After Long Illness

Mrs. Rose E. Richardson, wife of the late William E. Richardson, died on Tuesday at her home, 876 Spruce street. Mrs. Richardson, who came to Winnetka in 1890, taught in the public schools here for several years.
For the last three years she had been confined to her room. Grief over the loss of her husband, who died in 1917, is thought to have hastened her death.
Before she became ill, Mrs. Richardson was active in church work in the village.

Surviving her are one sister, Mrs.
Edith V. Kendall, of 876 Spruce street, a brother, Elmer E. Evers, of Chicago, a niece, Mrs. William J. Hedger, of Chicago, and two nieces and three nephews in the far west.

The funeral services were held at her late residence Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Interment was at Rosehill cemetery.
