HOME FOR HOLIDAYS

Albert and James Peirce who attend Hill school in the east, have returned home for the holidays. Miss Agnes Peirce, a student at Ratcliffe college, arrived home Thursday, and her sisters, Susanna and Charlotte, who have been at Kemper Hall in Kenosha this year, will also spend the holidays with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Albert E. Peirce, 656 Ardsley road.

The members of the Y. W. C. A. branch of the Northwestern university are dressing 300 dolls for the children at the Northwestern University settlement, 1400 Augusta street, Chicago, as their donation for Christmas. Each girl who wishes may take a doll to dress. There is no restriction as to type, but baby dolls seem to be preferred. About 3000 stockings made of Tarlatan sewed up with green wool and filled with candy are also being donated. Groups of children are guests in the various sorority and fraternity houses with Christmas parties.

Mrs. Charles A. Klotz, 88 Indian Hill road, returned home from California last Tuesday. Miss Catherine Klotz returned last Sunday from St. Catherine's school at Richmond, Va. to spend the holidays.

The Sunday School of the Union Church of Kenilworth has postponed their party which was to be tomorrow evening at the assembly hall. It is postponed indefinitely on account of the prevalence of so much illness. The younger children will have their party as planned.

Miss Anita Watson, 116 Woodland avenue, Kenilworth entertained her Sunday school class at tea last Sunday evening, December 16.

North Western Choristers to Sing Carols Saturday

Christmas carols will be sung in the Chicago and North Western terminal this Saturday afternoon from 2 until 6 o'clock on the balcony of the main waiting room by the Chicago and North Western Choral club. The mixed chorus of fifty voices is composed entirely of employees of the railway company. Handel's Hallelujah Chorus will be sung at 3 o'clock and at 5:50. Other numbers on the program will be: "Hark, the Herald Angels Sing," "Joy to the World," "Holy Night, Silent Night," "Hail Smiling Morn," "We Three Kings of Orient Are," "It Came Upon the Midnight Clear," "The First Noel," "God Rest You Merry Gentlemen," and "Good Christian Men Rejoice."

Christmas trees brought down from the Northwoods of Wisconsin will be lighted both inside and outside the terminal Saturday night, before the Hallelujah Chorus is sung the second time. There will be two in the main concourse, one in the ladies' parlor, one in the nursery, and two in front of the building on the corners of Madison and Canal streets. They will stand until after New Year's night.

The Corn King Limited and the North Western Limited also will carry lighted and decorated Christmas trees.

HERE FROM SPAIN

Mrs. Robert Grinnell and her son, Robert, Jr., of Barcelona, Spain, are spending the holidays with Mrs. Grinnell's sister, Mrs. Tuthill Ketcham, 38 Briar street. Mrs. Grinnell, a former Chicago girl who has lived in Spain for the past nine years, has many friends on the north shore.

Mrs. Joanna Schwartz, her daughter, Mrs. Frances Farrell, and her granddaughter, Gladys, are spending the winter with Mrs. Schwartz' son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Schwartz, 187 Ridge avenue. Clifford Schwartz, the Charles Schwartz' son, arrives home today from Carleton college for the holidays.

William Pancoast, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Pancoast, returned yesterday from the University of Michigan to spend the Christmas vacation at his home at 637 Hill road.

Miss Jean Marx, 522 Essex road, Kenilworth returned from Boston today for the Christmas holidays.
