

TROTH ANNOUNCED

An announcement of interest to the north shore and particularly to Kenilworth is made by Mr. and Mrs. A. Shreve Badger of Evanston, who this week have disclosed the engagement of their daughter, Frances, to William Dent Reichmann, son of Mr. and Mrs.

Alexander F. Reichmann of Barrington, Ill. The Reichmanns formerly made their home in Kenilworth.

Miss Eva Wilson of 623 Spruce street is spending the winter at La Jolla, Cal. Her sister, Mrs. W. H. Hand of Adrian, Mich. is with her.

Harry Harrisons Return From Fortnight's Trip

Mr. and Mrs. Harry P. Harrison and daughter, Ruth Mary, 307 Abbottsford road, Kenilworth returned last Saturday after spending two weeks in the east. Their trip included Asheville, N. C. where they visited, Dan Harrison who is in the Asheville School for Boys this winter. From Asheville they went to Washington where they were guests of Congressman Fess of Ohio, who took Ruth to the private galleries of Congress and she was there when the Boulder Dam bill was passed. They met many prominent persons in Washington. From Washington they went to New York City and after seeing many plays, they returned to Washington for a few days before returning home. Dan Harrison is arriving home today.

Inter-Troop Scout Contest Won by Kenilworth Boys

The Kenilworth Boy Scouts, troop No. 13, undefeated by any north shore Scouts' group in the last seven years, won more laurels last Friday night, December 14, when they took first place in the annual north shore inter-troop Scouting contest held at the Kenilworth Union gymnasium.

The Kenilworth Scouts had twenty-eight points to their credit. Evanston troop No. 7, was second with thirteen. Evanston troop No. 3 finished third with ten points, and Evanston troop No. 5 fourth with three. Points were awarded on the basis of proficiency in drilling, knot tying, semaphore and Morse code signaling, fire by flint and steel, and fire by friction.

With the exception of fire by friction, in which troop No. 7 of Evanston had the most points, Kenilworth excelled in every event, winning the contest decisively in spite of the fact that twenty-nine out of fifty-eight boys were absent on account of illness or for other reasons.

One hundred eighteen north shore Boy Scouts, principally from Kenilworth and Evanston, were entered in the various events of the contest. Walter McPeck, north shore area Scout executive, was head judge. He was assisted by Robert J. Hildebrandt, Jack Banks, Jeffrey Poole, George Stocking, and Bailey Barnes. W. Chessman was timekeeper.

Mr. and Mrs. Post and Jeannette Post of Abbottsford road, Kenilworth left today for Lincoln, Neb. where they will spend the Christmas holidays.

Miss Marjorie Oleson, 240 Woodstock avenue, Kenilworth returned home from Ward Belmont school, Nashville, Tenn. last Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. William Lewis Dalrymple, 624 Isabella street, Wilmette will have as house guests for the Christmas holidays, Mr. and Mrs. J. Wilson Dalrymple of the Curtis hotel, Minneapolis, and Mr. and Mrs. Glenn A. Lawrence and their small daughter, Betty Jane, of Cleveland.

Christmas Dinner

To those who know Georgian cooking there is no need to describe the delectable food which will be served here on Christmas Day.

It is rather important to make your reservations early, however, to avoid disappointments . . . because our chef says he has a "right merry dinner in store for you."
