Triangle Club League Is Busy With Winter Sports

The Giants team of the Triangle club bowling league defeated the Yanks, while the Triangle Boosters won from the Pretzel Benders, this week. The Pretzel Benders and the Yanks are now tied for first place in the league standing, with the Giants and Boosters tied for second honors.

The Triangle club's indoor baseball teams won both their recent games, with good scores, the Winnetka Post Office team and the Rogers Park Champs being the victims.

At a meeting of the club last Monday evening seventeen of the members volunteered to give a minstrel show, the proceeds from which will go to Community House.

And now will we have fun?

Following is the standing of the bowling teams to date:

Team	T. G.	W.	L.	Pct.
Pretzel Benders	18	10	8	.556
Yanks	18	10	8	.556
Giants	18	8	10	.444
Triangle Boosters	18	8	10	.444

Death Claims J. T. Fales; Father Pioneer Winnetkan

James Turner Fales, formerly of Lake Forest, passed away Thursday, December 13. Mr. Fales was the son of the late David Fales, attorney, who was one of the pioneer Chicago families. He was a charter member of the Chicago Bar association and associated with various public institutions concerned with the development of Chicago.

In 1875 the elder Mr. Fales purchased considerable lake front property in Winnetka. He lived there for several years, and was one of the organizers of the Winnetka Congregational church.

Mr. Fales is survived by his widow and by two sisters, Miss Katherine Fales of Lake Forest, and Mrs. William Wister Comfort of Haverford, Pa., and by three brothers, Prof. David Fales of New Brunswick, N. J., John Chester Fales of Sacramento, Cal., and Elisha N. Fales of Winnetka.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Eckstedt, 817 Elm street, will leave Sunday for the east to spend the holidays with Dr. Ruben Peterson of Edgewood, Pa., where their son, Dr. Oscar Ekstedt of Philadelphia, and sons from Rochester will join them.
