Dr. Herbert L. Willett, minister

Dr. Willett's subject next Sunday, December 23, will be, "Without Christmas, What?"

The Young People's club will meet on Sunday evening at 6 in the Guild room.

The Ladies' Guild is suspending its meetings during the holiday season. Work will be resumed on Monday, January 7.

The Wednesday evening lectures on "Great Poets of the Ages" have been intermitted during the holidays. The three numbers, on Goethe, Browning and Tennyson, that will conclude the series, will be given during January.

It was with regret that the officers of the Sunday school decided that, owing to the prevalence of the "flu," the Christmas exercises announced for Saturday evening should be omitted. Those of the Beginners' Department will however be held on Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock, as announced. The other departments of the School will hold Christmas exercises Sunday morning at the regular school hour. The various classes in the Sunday School are making special offerings of money, clothing, provisions and toys for several deserving families recommended by the Children's Memorial Hospital, and to two or three Sunday Schools in the mountains of Kentucky and Tennessee, as in previous years.

Sunday morning, December 30, at 11 o'clock, Dr. Willett's subject will be, "The Making of the Past."

Miss Elizabeth Knode, who made her debut this fall, returned home last Tuesday from Wellesley. Miss Knode will give a ball with Miss Charlotte Picher on the evening of December 27, at the Blackstone.

Miss Florence Taylor, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William G. Taylor, 508 Cherry street, returned for the Christmas holidays yesterday from Ann Arbor where she is a student at the University of Michigan.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward A. Jones (Doris G. Hanville) of 996 Linden avenue announce the birth of a son, Edward Hanville Jones, on Monday, December 10.

Roycemore Pupils Send Gift Packages to Chicago Commons

Christmas packages for 400 children at the Chicago Commons, each labeled with a child's name, will be sent this week from Roycemore school, Evanston. This will be the fiftieth year that the pupils at this school have remembered the Chicago Commons children at Christmas time.

Each girl has provided for the package for one child, putting in such useful articles as mittens or stockings and the like and toys. Five or six car loads will leave the school carrying the gifts.

Two Christmas parties at the school were held for the pupils, one for the fifth, sixth and seventh forms and the other for the eighth form and upper school. Children of the primary were dismissed last Friday until after the holidays because of numerous colds and consequently will not have a Christmas party.

The lower school party was held Thursday morning at 10:30 and consisted of presentation of a pageant of the story of the Christ Child with carols accompanying. Miss Elinor Rice directed the pageant and Mrs. Caroline Kohlsatt was in charge of the music.

Poems, carols and stories from the scriptures were on the program for the upper school party. The school glee club also took part.

Miss Rebecca Ashley, principal, will leave after tomorrow for Sharpes, Fla., to spend the holidays.

Margaret Boynton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur J. Boynton, 604 Cherry street, Winnetka, returned Friday from Wellesley college to spend Christmas holidays with her parents.

The young people's dance at the Kenilworth club, planned for the evening of December 28, has been postponed until after the holidays.

David and Philip Burnham, 536 Roslyn road, Kenilworth returned from Princeton university Thursday to spend the Christmas holidays.
