Farrell Is Star of "Fazil," Coming to Norshore Next Week

"Fazil," declared by critics to be one of the best pictures in recent months, will be on the Norshore screen for one week beginning this Saturday, December 22. The stars of the picture are Charles Farrell, famed for his performances in "Seventh Heaven" and "Street Angel," and Greta Nissen, noted Swedish actress.

Desert scenes, elaborate and romantic Arabian backgrounds, and glimpses of Venice and Paris are among the things to be seen in "Fazil." The story, too, is interesting. Its theme is the eternal difference between east and west. Fazil, the Arabian, falls in love with a liberty-loving child of modern Paris, marries her, and then tries to understand her code of ethics, while she is as puzzled over Fazil's attitude. They separate, after a honeymoon in Paris, and the Arab goes back to his own people. But the story ends, as

Commenting on the performances of Farrell and Miss Nissen in "Fazil," one well known Chicago critic has this to say: "Greta Nissen was never lovelier nor more appealing, nor a better actress, than she is here, and Charles Farrell brings to his strange role all the great charm and magnetism that are his. Perhaps he doesn't get at your heart as he did in 'Seventh Heaven' and 'Street Angel' but he certainly gives a great performance."

CAST ALMOST COMPLETE

The cast for "The Four Feathers," said to be Paramount's most ambitious offering since "Wings," is practically complete. It includes Richard Arlen, Clive Brook, Fay Wray, William Powell, Noah Beery, George Fawcett, Phillippe de Lacy, Theodore von Eltz, and Noble Johnson.

Dolores del Rio in "Ramona" on Screen at Community House

Only one motion picture will be shown at the Community House next week, it was announced today, since Tuesday, one of the regular "picture" days, will be Christmas day. "Ramona," with Dolores del Rio and Warner Baxter, is to be on the screen there next Friday, December 28. There will be an extra matinee at 2:30 p. m. and the usual matinee at 4. p. m.

"Ramona" is from a story by Helen Hunt Jackson which is regarded as one of the present day American classics. When Mrs. Jackson decided to write the story she had a deliberate purpose and as high an aim as that associated with the writing of "Uncle Tom's Cabin." She did not realize that her story would prove one of America's most interesting romances. It was the writer's motive to bring the treatment of the Indians by the Americans before Congress in the hope that Congress would enact just laws.

Before "Ramona" recalled the Indians' plight in fiction from, Mrs. Jackson had written "A Century of Dishonor," and indictment of the government for its failure to keep its promise with the Red Man from early times down to the date of the publication of the book, 1880. Later she became convinced that public sympathy on behalf of the Mission Indians of California could be awakened if revealed in story form; hence her novel with a purpose—"Ramona."

STAGE PLAYERS IN FILMS

Five Broadway stage players, who have never appeared before movie cameras, are in the cast of the all-talking film version of "Nightstick," crook play seen in New York last season. These stage players are Eleanor Griffith, recent star of "The Spider" on the Broadway stage, Pat O'Malley, Chester Morris, Regis Toomey, and Harry Stubbs.

BEGINS WORK ON "VENUS"

Constance Talmadge has begun work on her first United Artists picture. It is entitled "Venus," a modern story, based on the novel of the same name by Jean Vingnaud, French journalist. Jean Murat, a Frenchman, is Miss Talmadge's leading man.

Lois Wilson will appear opposite Edward Everett Horton in a series of two-reel sound comedies.
