LaRocque Stars in "Captain Swagger" at Teatro del Lago

Rod LaRocque's new Pathe picture, "Captain Swagger," which comes to the Teatro del Lago this Saturday, December 22, was enthusiastically received by a preview audience at the Alhambra theater, Los Angeles. A leading critic had this to say about the picture: "Captain Swagger" is in every way a good show with its exciting plot, interesting characters, and sumptuous backgrounds. Rod LaRocque as the Escadrille, Ulrich Haupt as the German aviator, and Sue Carol as the waif of New York night life, entertain in every sequence in which they appear, and the star, Mr. LaRocque, particularly shines in the character of the lovable, if braggart, 'high society' wastrel.

Charles "Buddy" Rogers has the leading role in "Varsity" at the Teatro this Sunday, with Mary Brian and Chester Conklin furnishing support. The story deals with a whimsical janitor whose aim in life is achieved when his son comes to college. The scenes for "Varsity" were actually taken on the campus at Princeton university and were supervised in the making by a committee from the faculty of the university.

Norma Talmadge Stars

"The Woman Disputed," the love and hate drama of an outcast woman's redemption, brings Norma Talmadge to the screen of the Teatro del Lago on Monday and Tuesday in what is said to be the greatest role of her career. There will be a special matinee on Tuesday, Christmas day. This United Artists' picture is based on the sensational stage play of the same name by Dennison Clift. The story as translated to the screen by C. Gardner Sullivan, has in its film manifestation, all the drama, virility and charm of the play, authorities who have seen both versions state. The players appearing in support of Miss Talmadge in "The Woman Disputed" are well known to picture-goers. Gilbert Roland, hero of Miss Talmadge's "The Dove," plays a like role in this film. Arnold Kent is the rival suitor.

A notable cast appears with Lew Cody and Aileen Pringle in their latest co-starring vehicle, "The Baby Cyclone," Teatro attraction for next Wednesday. Among the well known players are Robert Armstrong, Gwen Lee, and Clarissa Selwynne. "The Baby Cyclone" is the story of a little Pekingese dog named "Cyclone," brought into the lives of two couples in different social worlds. Women quarrel over the ownership of the dog, and men whine because their wives love the dog more than their husbands. A fine mixup is born, and amid many hilarious complications it works to a clever dramatic twist that solves the problem and leaves everybody happy.

Alcyon Theater Announces Christmas Week Program

The Alcyon theater in Highland Park announces that it will inaugurate its Christmas week program with the showing of "Varsity," sound and talking picture. "Varsity" is a college romance starring Charles (Buddy) Rogers and Mary Brian, and will be shown on Sunday and Monday. Besides the regular picture a program of vitaphone acts will be presented, including the Four Aristocrats, Florence Moore, a musical sketch entitled "A Night in Coffee Dan's," and a novelty Christmas reel, "The Wooden Soldier."

On Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday the Alcyon will offer the great talking comedy "Beware of Bachelors," with William Collier Jr., and Audrey Ferris. On the same program will be a vitaphone two-reel talking comedy sketch, "Giving In," with Harry Delf and Hedda Hopper, and Brooks and Ross in melodious harmony.

"Women They Talk About," starring Irene Rich, will be the Alcyon attraction on Friday and Saturday.

The Pearl theater in Highland Park continues to present three acts of vaudeville every Saturday and Sunday in conjunction with first run feature photoplays.

O. P. Heggie, one of the best known Broadway actors, left New York last week to take a featured role in a new Paramount all-dialog picture called "A Genius is Born."

Conway Tearle is playing in talkies for Tiffany-Stahl.
