Gathered About Our Christmas Tree

Talk Photo

Despite the fact that semi-summery weather prevailed when our photogra- pher snapped this picture, the community Christmas tree on the Village Hall square did its best to assume a Yuletide atmosphere. Grouped about the tree anxiously awaiting the blanket of snow destined to complete the setting are Corinne Cole, Rose McKendry, Jane McKendry, Charles Cole, and Ralph Rock- wood.

Mrs. Lyman M. Drake, Jr.,
Taken by Death Tuesday

Funeral services were held in St. James' Episcopal church, Cass and Huron streets, Chicago, Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock for Mrs. Lyman Manley Drake Jr., who died last Tuesday at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William L. Jacoby, 1367 N. State street, Chicago. Before her marriage last May, Mrs. Drake was Miss Mary Jacoby, a member of the younger social set. She had been ill with influenza only two days.

Mrs. Drake was educated at the Chicago Latin school and at Les Fourgeres in Lausanne, Switzerland. She was interested in welfare work, being secretary of the Junior league and a member of the Service club. She was on the Children's Memorial hospital board and was the youngest member of the Eli Bates Settlement house board. Mrs. Drake also was president of the Chicago Latin School Alumnae association.

Although a resident of Chicago, Mrs. Drake was well known on the north shore. She was the daughter-in-law of Mr. and Mrs. Lyman M. Drake, of 933 Lake avenue, Wilmette.

There are 1,470, 740 residential light- ing customers of electric light and pow- er companies in Illinois. Approximately half of these, living in Chicago, are served by one company, the Common- wealth Edison company.
