

The Only Newspaper of Its Kind in the World
The Christian Science Monitor
An International Daily Newspaper

"No intelligent, forward-looking individual who wishes to be truly informed on vital issues of the day and age can afford to be without the CHRISTIAN SCIENCE MONITOR."
A University Professor.

"I am sure there can be no newspaper or magazine which can bring the world closer to one's door than the CHRISTIAN SCIENCE MONITOR, for its news is assembled from all parts of the world. In its columns one often reads of things and events which do not appear even in one's home paper."
A Traveller.

"What a blessing the postman brings to our home each day in the CHRISTIAN SCIENCE MONITOR! I am pleased with the "Daily Features" section. The "Word a Day" is interesting and helpful. Our six year old loves the "Sun Dial" quite as much as the "Children's Page."
A Mother.
