

Preparing for Christmas Next Year

MANY of you who read this were members of our Christmas Club just paid out. You were prepared for Christmas.

We congratulate you on your foresight and on your accomplishment, and are happy to have played a part in making this Christmas cash-free, with no first-of-the-year "Please Remits" to look forward to.

Of course you will join our new Club, just starting. Why not also speak to some other member of your family or a friend? You can give them first-hand information as to the benefits to be derived. You will be doing much more than showing them the way to a better Christmas. Every Club member has learned that the setting aside of a small sum of money regularly is the only sure way to make your dreams a reality.

We set out here a list of the Clubs showing what you deposit each week and the totals at the end of fifty weeks when all deposits have been made.

And don't forget, the bank will add interest at the rate of 3% if all deposits are made on time.

To Play Angular Violins at Chicago Concert Jan. 3

To demonstrate the first four and only existing cubistic diamond-shaped violins, conceived by Herman Paquette last year, a concert will be given at Orchestra hall, Chicago, the evening of Jan. 3.

The violins will be played by Misha Livshutz, famous Russian violin artist. He will include some of his own compositions in the program.

Mr. Paquette has had 54 years' experience in violin-making. These angular, rather than curved violins, are reputed to have proved a great success and it is claimed that they are the greatest in tone quality and volume of any violins in the world. Mr. Paquette, who has been playing his violin in informal concerts in the homes of Evanston friends, expects to start in January on a tour round the world for the purpose of demonstrating the new type of instrument in the leading cities of the United States and Europe.

Colorful Ceremony Marks Ordination of Three Ministers

With colorful ceremony and elaborate ritual, three young men were ordained into the orders of the Episcopal church at St. Luke's church, Evanston, Friday morning.

A large congregation gathered for the services at which the Rt. Rev. Charles P. Anderson, bishop of the Diocese of Chicago, conducted ordination ceremonies and celebrated the Holy Communion, and at which the Rev. George Craig Stewart, who that day celebrated the 25th anniversary of his own ordination to the Episcopal priesthood, preached the ordination sermon.

The candidates ordained included the Rev. John B. Hubbard of Evanston, who recently came to the staff of St. Luke's from Escanaba, Mich., where he had served as minister in the Presbyterian church, and who was ordained deacon. He was presented for ordination by the Rev. Dr. Stewart. The Rev. Otis Jackson, assistant at St. Paul's, Kenwood, was presented for ordination to the priesthood by the Rev. Dr. Thomas, rector of St. Paul's, and the Rev. L. M. Morse, a student at Nashotah seminary, was presented for deacon's orders by the Rev. Leland Danforth of Kenilworth.

Special music of inspiring and beautiful character was sung by a large choir, and the acolytes assisted with the services.

Preceding the ordination services, a class of 28 people was confirmed by the Rt. Rev. Sheldon M. Griswold, suffragan bishop of the diocese, and three people were received from the Roman church.

Mr. and Mrs. Coran T. Davis, 132 Bertling lane, will leave January 2, for Miami Beach, Fla. to be gone about a month.
