

North Shore Holiday Festivity Now Nearing Its Peak

Holiday Affairs Centering Around Young Folk, Clubs

BY JEAN TEN BROECK

This is a continued-from-last-week column today for it still concerns itself with a resumé of holiday affairs for young people as well as a re-announcement of club events. As so much pleasure must be crowded into so short a time, hosts and hostesses these days announce the date of their prospective affairs far in advance, leaving a news gatherer little to announce during the actual holidays that is new.

January will bring several more holiday affairs for the younger set, of which we remind you again.

On New Year's eve Mr. and Mrs. Charles F. Henning of Glencoe will give a dance for their daughters, Miss Betty and Miss Jane.

New Year's day will bring two Winnetka debuts, that of Miss Louise Badgerow, who will be presented to society at a tea dance given by her father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Harve Badgerow, at Indian Hill club, and that of Miss Harriet Leonard, who will be introduced at the annual New Year's reception given by her father, John R. Leonard, at Wildacre.

On January 2, Mr. and Mrs. Morris K. Wilson of Winnetka will be host and hostesses at a dancing party for Leslie Wilson.

Next Wednesday will also be the occasion of a dance at the Evanston Country club given by a group of New Trier senior boys including Alfred Hunter Hicks, William Thomas Reed, Robert Alexander Joslin, Arthur Tuttle McIntosh, Jr., Eugene Crosby O'Connor, Harold Byron Keith, Edward Evans Munn, Robert Clark Hill, and John Mortimer Parker.

Ten young men will be hosts on January 3, at the Evanston Country club. They are Robert M. Brown, George E. Cogswell, Clifton L. Darling, Jr., Dorland J. Davis, Leon T. Dickinson, Robert K. Ellis, William M. Gibson, Carl B. Hall, William O. Kurtz, Jr., and Robert H. Simons.

Next Friday Skokie Country club will be the scene of a dance given by the Misses Sarah Minor, Lois Nordburg, Janet Hughes, Barbara Laing, Helen Shepherd, Evelyn Wienecke, Mary Karker, Nancy Knapp, Heleif Brandriff, Harriet Christie, Clara Cornell, Ruth Enright, Georgianna Gonsalves, Barbara Mearns and Josephine Otter.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Durham of Winnetka, will give a winter sports luncheon at Indian Hill club on Sunday, January 6, in honor of several of this year's debutantes including Miss Louise Badgerow and Miss Jean MacLeish.

New Year's eve will be a gay affair at the north shore clubs this season, according to scheduled plans which include New Year's eve balls at the Kenilworth club, the Club Vista del Lago, and a supper dance at Indian Hill. The Skokie Subscription club will have its annual New Year's party at Skokie Country club on New Year's eve.

Give New Year's Teas

Three Winnetka homes will be opened for receptions New Year's day. At that time Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Fentress, 939 Green Bay road, will be host and hostess at another of their annual affairs. Mr. and Mrs. Willoughby Walling and their daughter, Miss Frederica, 1094 Private road, will be at home to their friends Tuesday, and Mr. and Mrs. Norman MacLeish will give a reception from 4 until 7 at their home, 608 Elm street, in honor of Mrs. Joseph B. McCall, Mrs. MacLeish's mother.

Betrothed

Mr. and Mrs. John W. Melone of Wilmette, announce the engagement of their daughter, Mildred, to Richard Louis deBerard, son of Mr. and Mrs. Louis deBerard of Glencoe.

Club Federation to Hold Open House on January 2

The Illinois Federation of Women's clubs will keep open house on Wednesday afternoon, January 2, from 2 in the afternoon until 8 at night, at the federation's new headquarters, 30 West Washington street, Chicago.

This will afford an opportunity to all interested to view the new rooms and furnishings, many of the latter being gifts from districts or clubs, and to meet the members of the board of directors, who will be in the receiving line with the past state presidents and the new president, Mrs. J. Marc Fowler, of Chicago. The music will be in charge of Mrs. Frederick Williams and Mrs. B. A. McGee, and many of the junior members of the federation will assist in various ways.

A cordial invitation is extended to all club women and their friends.

Makes Debut Christmas

Miss Louise Fentress was prettily gowned in a frock of flesh colored chiffon made with a ruffled skirt and lace berth when she was introduced to society on Christmas day. She received with twelve debutante friends assisting her at a tea given by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Fentress, and her sister, Mrs. Herman A. L. Behlen of New York, at the Fentress home at 1127 Sheridan road. Mrs. Behlen's gown was of black velvet.

A supper dance for the debutante and her assistants followed the tea.

Barretts Postpone Dance

The dance that was to have been given Thursday by Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Barrett, 530 Cherry street, for their son, William, has been postponed on account of illness in the family.

To Be Dance Hosts

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Yates Hoffman and Mr. and Mrs. Dorr Clendenin Price are to give a dance at the Club Vista del Lago on the evening of January 11.

Elizabeth Stutson Becomes Bride of Bradlee Pruden

Feathery asparagus fern and colored sea grass from Florida, with Christmas trees at either side, transformed the fireplace in the Willis Stutson home at 479 Sunset road into an altar of green with a Christmas touch of red for the wedding of Miss Elizabeth Stutson and Bradlee Pruden last Thursday evening. Only the immediate families were present at the ceremony which was read by Dr. J. W. F. Davies at 7:45 o'clock. A wedding reception followed from 8:30 until 10.

The bride's gown was of egg-shell satin fashioned in period style with a long collar of duchess lace, a family heirloom. Her veil of tulle was trimmed with yards of heirloom rosepoint and duchess lace and was held to her head with a Dutch cap of duchess lace, also an heirloom. The clusters of real orange blossoms on her cap and slippers were brought from California. The bridal bouquet was a shower of lilies of the valley. The maid of honor, Miss Lorraine Thoms of Winnetka, wore a period gown of blue lined with shell pink and carried pink roses. Mrs. Stutson was dressed in deep cream lace and wore a wrist bouquet of lilies of the valley and the bridegroom's mother, Mrs. Harry B. Pruden, was gowned in violet and wore a shoulder bouquet of violets.

Paul Schumacher of Cleveland served as best man.

Mr. Pruden and his bride have taken an apartment at 6801 Euclid avenue, Cleveland, where they will be at home after the first of January.

Out-of-town guests who came on for the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Pruden, now of DeLand, Fla., Mrs. Mae Millican of Los Angeles, Cal., and Miss Karma Ellen Golden of Champaign, Ill.

Among the bride's friends who entertained in her honor just before her marriage were Miss Marjorie Smith of Wilmette, Miss Mary Eleanor White of Winnetka and Miss Mildred Tideman of Wilmette, who were joint hostesses at the latter's home, and Miss Lorraine Thoms.

Louise Clabaugh Luncheon Hostess for Guest Today

Miss Louise Clabaugh, 1324 Scott avenue, Hubbard Woods, will be hostess at a luncheon and bridge for 24 guests at her home this afternoon in honor of Miss Sally Turton of Rochester, N. Y., who is the guest of the Clabaughs during the holidays.

Miss Clabaugh also gave a dinner party last Friday at Edgewater Beach hotel in honor of Miss Turton. Last Sunday Miss Margaret Stults, 418 Sheridan road, entertained at a tea for Miss Turton.

Miss Turton will return to her home tomorrow.

To Meet January 9

The meeting of the Woman's society of the Winnetka Congregational church has been changed from Wednesday of next week until Wednesday, January 9. At this time Mrs. Ernest Ballard will be the speaker and her subject has been announced "So You're Taking the Children to Europe." A more detailed announcement will be made next week.

Give Dinner Party

Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Murphy gave a dinner party last night at their home at 875 Hill road in honor of General and Mrs. Frank R. Schwengel.

Woman's Club Hears Delightful Program of Christmas Music

On Tuesday, December 18, a regular meeting of the Winnetka Woman's club was held in the clubhouse at 3 o'clock. The club was called to order by the president, Mrs. Carl Zeiss, who announced that the next meeting would take place on Tuesday, January 15, and would be in charge of the education committee. She then turned the meeting over to Mrs. Harry Street, chairman of the music committee.

The Christmas program, which was arranged by Mrs. Street and her committee, was given by the Winnetka Music club and was a gift from it to the Woman's club. On entering the room, one immediately felt the presence of the spirit of Christmas. The decorations of pine trees, and the light from many candles made the surrounding very charming.

Soon the beautiful strains of a "pastorale" by Jorinfeldt were heard, played by Mrs. Valona Brewer and Mrs. Sidney Bartlett, violinists, with Mrs. Dwight C. Orcutt at the piano and this added to the feeling of Christmas. Then, singing, "O, Come, All Ye Faithful" the red-robed chorus, each one carrying a lighted candle, marched into the room and onto the stage.

The following lovely program was given by the members of the club, with Mrs. Orcutt at the piano:

- I
- (1) Come, Good Christmas
..... Old English Carol
  - (2) Christmas Hymn
..... Old English Carol
  - (3) Christmas Joy
..... Old English Carol
- Chorus
- II Christmas Duet
Mrs. Guy Stuart Bailey,
Mrs. John Hansel
- III Lullaby
Noel of the Bressan Wait
..... Dancirux
- Chorus
- IV Christmas solos
Mrs. Karstrom

- V
- (1) The Forest in White
..... Lucina Jewell
  - (2) Bambino ..... Pietro Yon

Then, while singing the recessional, "Rejoice, Rejoice," by Clough Leighter, the chorus went from the room. The whole program was a very beautiful and fitting introduction to the Christmas season.

Dinner Precedes Dance

Mr. and Mrs. John Crawford McKeown, 935 South Private road, have as their house guest, Miss Jane Dyars of Hinsdale. They are giving a dinner party in her honor preceding the Cushman-Mason dance this evening.

Debut Postponed

Invitations for the debutante luncheon which Mr. and Mrs. Francis A. Lackner were to have given for their daughter at Indian Hill club last Sunday were recalled because of a recent bereavement in the family.

Dinner Host Tonight

William Truesdale, son of Mr. and Mrs. William D. Truesdale, 570, Arbor Vitae road, is giving a dinner party before the dance being given by Miss Annie Mason and Miss Mary Cushman at the Indian Hill club this evening.
