

Francis Lackner, Noted Lawyer, Is Dead at Age of 88

Francis Lackner, former president of the Chicago Bar association, died last Thursday, December 20, at Pasadena, Cal., following an operation. Mr. Lackner was 88 years old. He had been an attorney practicing law in Chicago for 56 years, and had lived in Kenilworth for 15 years prior to 1920.

Born in Detroit, Mr. Lackner was educated in Milwaukee where he began his career as a lawyer. When the civil war started, he enlisted in the 26th Wisconsin infantry and also served on the staff of Gen. Carl Schurz and Gen. Daniel Butterfield. He entered the service as a second lieutenant and was made a lieutenant colonel before the war ended.

In 1866 Mr. Lackner was admitted to the Illinois bar and became the senior member of the firm of Lackner, Butz and Miller in Chicago. He was honorary member of the University and Union league clubs.

Mr. Lackner is survived by his widow, Mrs. Nannie Jussen Lackner; one son, Francis A. Lackner, of 339 Linden avenue, Winnetka, and four daughters, Mrs. Charles S. Kennedy, of 369 Ridge avenue, Winnetka, Mrs. Franklin N. Corbin, of Chicago, Mrs. J. H. Booge, of San Pedro, Cal., and Mrs. George Reinecke, of Pasadena.

Edmund M. Keil Summoned by Death; Ill 3 Months

Edmund M. Keil, 1201 Ridge avenue, Wilmette, died Friday, December 21, at the Evanston hospital. Mr. Keil was a Public Service company employe and was 30 years of age. He had been ill for three months, and went to the hospital three weeks before he died. Surviving him are his mother, Mrs. Mary Keil of Wilmette; three sisters, Mrs. Pauline Falkenberg and Mrs. Marie Steinhoff, both of Wilmette, and Mrs. Elizabeth Stradford of Highland Park; and four brothers, Math, Peter, Charles, and Anthony, all of Wilmette. Funeral services were held Monday morning, December 24, from the residence. Burial was at St. Joseph's.

HOME FOR HOLIDAYS

John Wallace is home from Cornell spending the holidays with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter F. Wallace, 815 Mount Pleasant road. Mrs. Wallace has had word that her daughter, Mrs. W. Hinchman, and her husband are spending the holidays with Miss Ashton Wilson of Fayetteville, S. C. Miss Wilson was Mrs. Hinchman's maid of honor at her recent wedding.

HOLDS OPEN HOUSE

Miss Marion Suits, Warwick road, Kenilworth, held open house Sunday afternoon from 4 until 6.

Mrs. A. A. Beebe and her daughter, of 25 Indian Hill road, and Mrs. M. K. Valentine left Monday, December 24, to spend the winter at the Raymond hotel, Pasadena. They will be gone until the first of April.

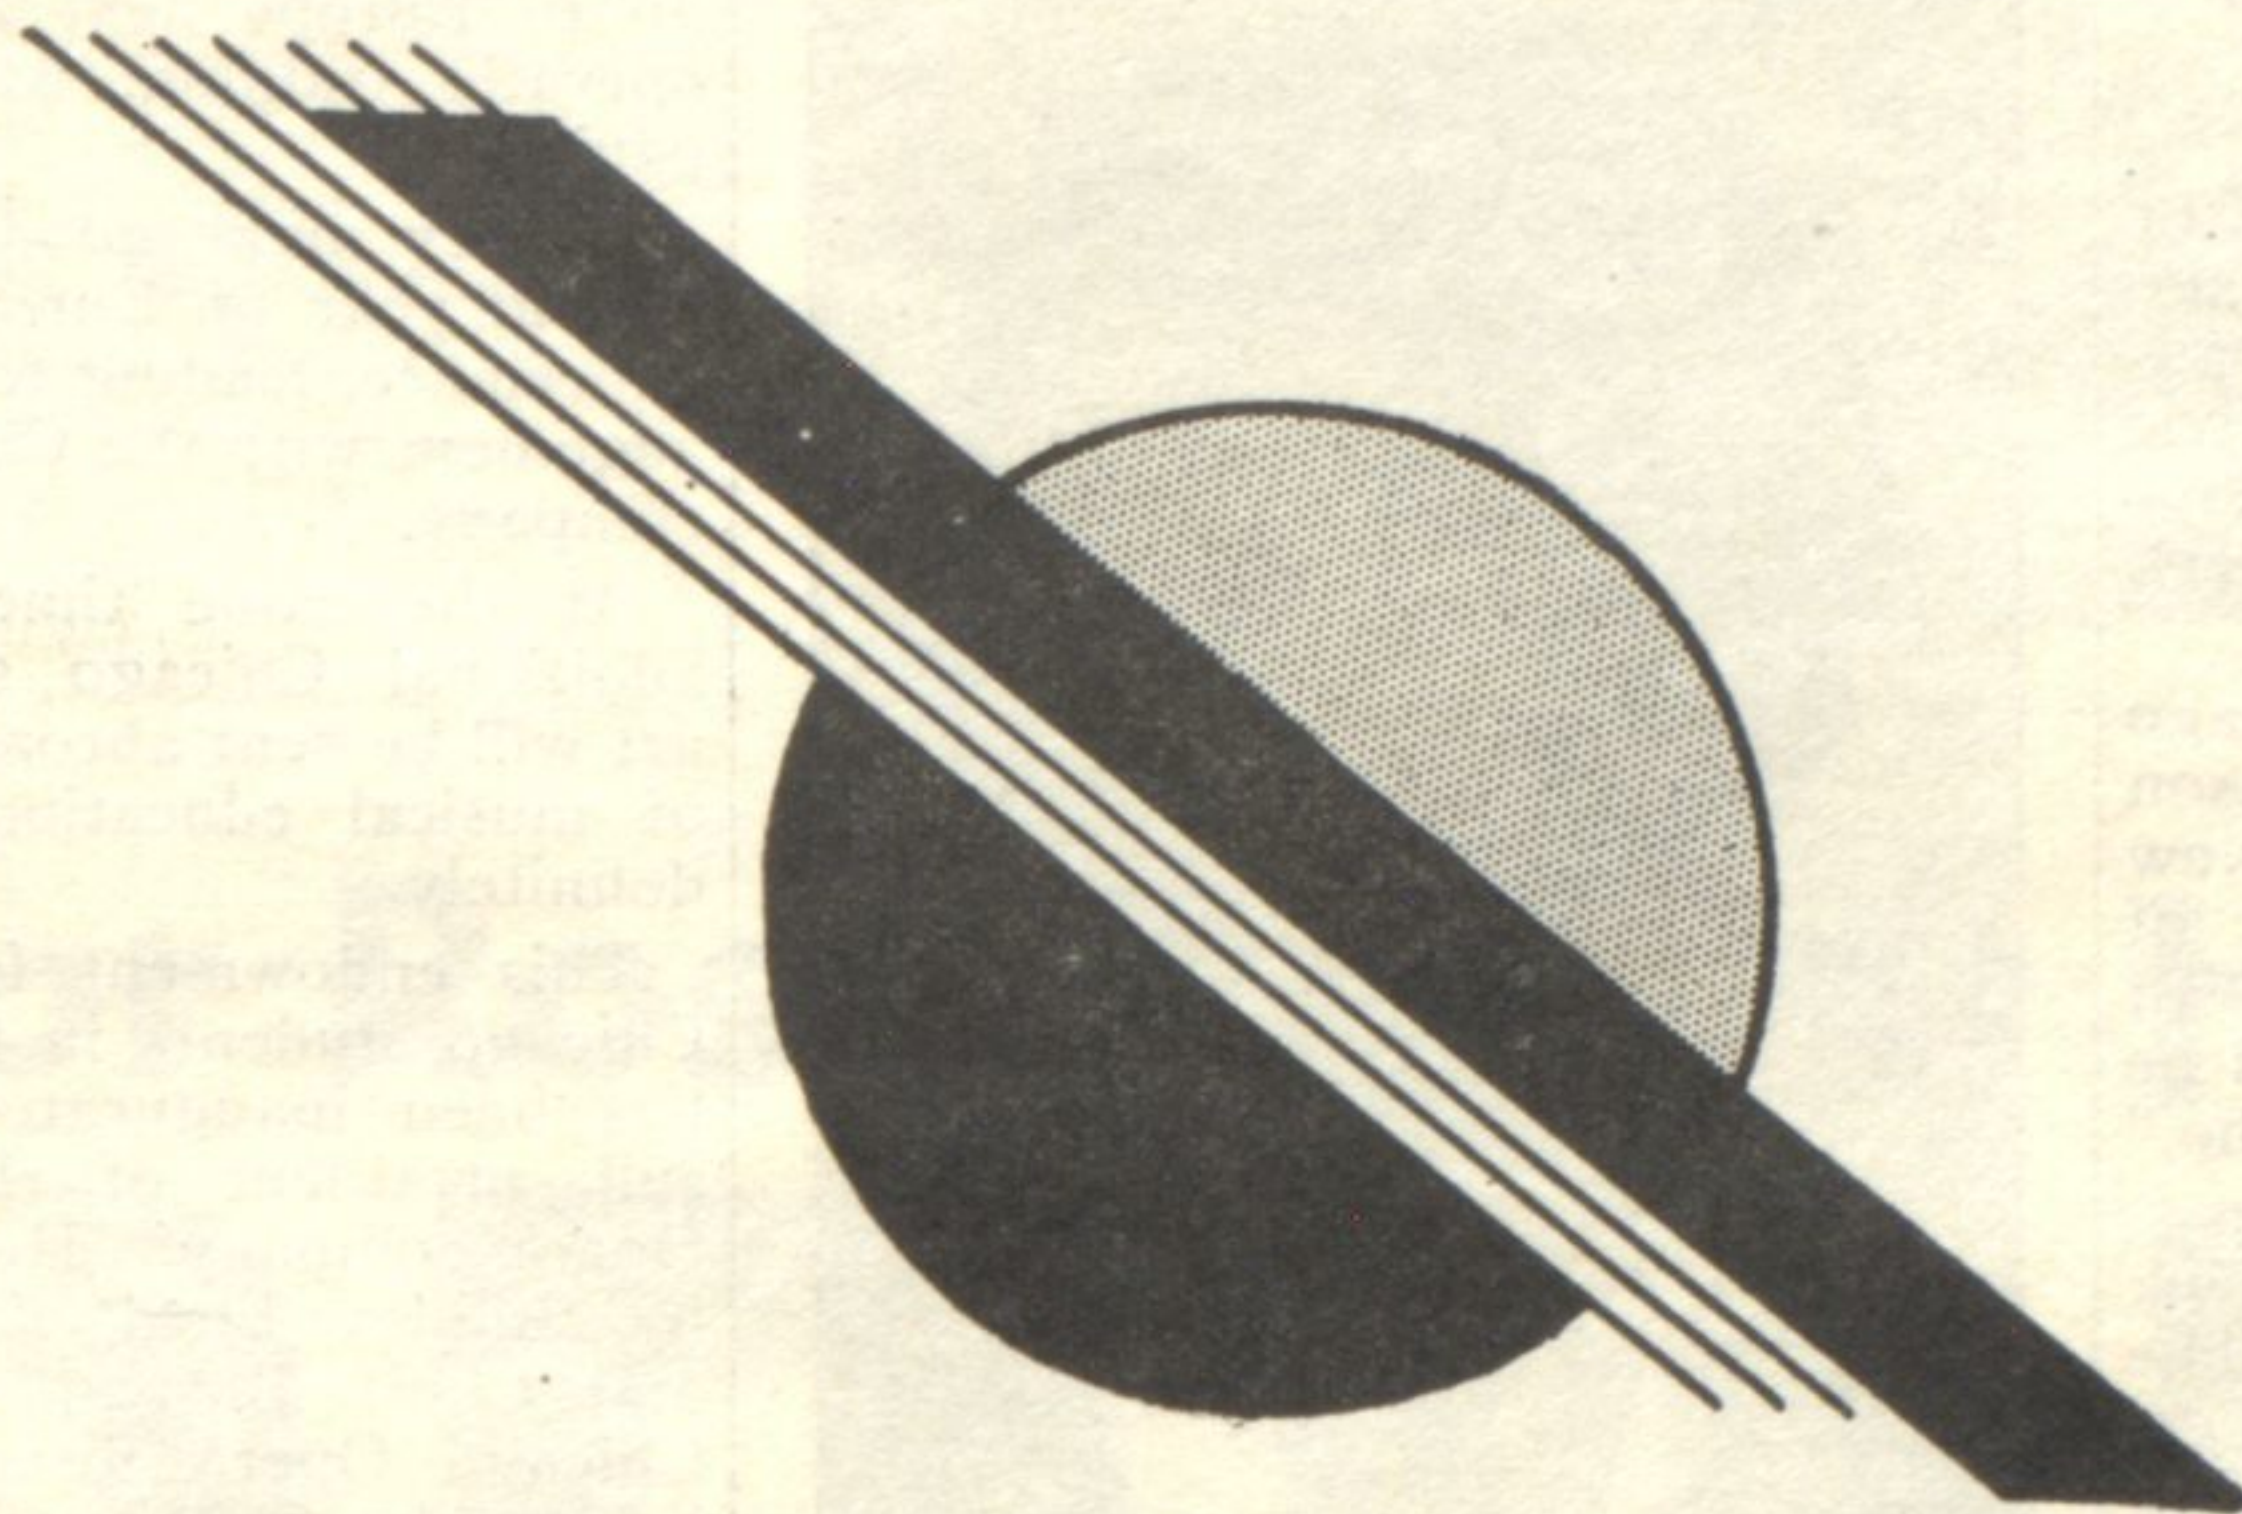

Mrs. Bentley McCloud, 338 Kenilworth avenue, has as her guests, her father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Olmstead of Omaha, and her brother and his wife and family, from Milwaukee.

Victor Harding, son of Mr. and Mrs. Victor Harding, Burr avenue, Hubbard Woods, arrived home last Saturday from Harvard for the holidays.

John T. Clore, 654 Cherry street, came home for a few days this week from Elgin Military academy.

REDUCTIONS

in the Evanston Store

Winter apparel for infants, girls, boys, petite misses and misses is now drastically reduced to allow a complete assemblage of smart new clothes.

for infants, 1 to 6

A wide assortment of winter coats in three price groups: $7.50, $10.75, $15.75 . . . drastically reduced. Cloth hats and an assortment of frocks are also marked down for immediate clearance.

for girls, 6 to 16

A smart variety of winter coats greatly reduced because of oversupply, $13.75 up. Silk and wool dresses also drastically reduced, $4, $7.50 and up.

for boys, 4 to 16

A broken assortment of correct young coats and suits, drastically reduced for clearance before the new year.

for the petite miss and miss

Sportswear coats, street coats, sport and dress frocks attractively reduced. Exceptional values.

Marshall Field & Company

THE EVANSTON STORE
620 CHURCH STREET