First-Rate Movies on Teatro del Lago Program Next Week

"Beware of Bachelors," is the picture to be shown at the Teatro del Lago this Saturday, December 29, gives an exceedingly clever treatment of a subject which has been gone over by story writers and dramatists for many years. A leading critic made this comment concerning it: "Beware of Bachelors" is treated in a hilarious vein, and it has that quality which keeps an audience at chuckling point from the beginning to the end of the show. Audrey Ferris and William Collier Jr., are very amusing and likeable as the squabbling couple Andre Beranger, remembered for other bizarre characterizations, is amusing as the perfumer, who yearns to express his varying moods with perfumes of varying violence. Dave Morris is ludicrous as the huge pursuer, and Margaret Livingston plays with zest and charm. Roy del Ruth has done an exceptionally fine piece of direction, no opportunity for laughs or touches that interpret character being omitted."

The screen version of Earl Derr Biggers' recent Saturday Evening Post short story, "Honeymoon Flats," will be on the Teatro screen this Sunday, with George Lewis and Dorothy Gulliver co-starring. The story concerns a young married couple, the boy an ambitious young man anxious to succeed in business and to support his wife on his salary, the girl the daughter of wealthy parents who insist on donating gifts to the couple to enable their

Talking and Sound Films Feature Alcyon Programs

Two talking pictures and one in sound feature the program of the Alcyon theater in Highland Park for the coming week. On Sunday and Monday the screen version of Victor Hugo's novel, "The Man Who Laughs," will be presented in sound, with Conrad Veidt, Mary Philbin, and Baclanova playing the leading roles. This picture will be accompanied by a program of vitaphone acts including the Arnaut brothers, Joe Browning, and Hazel Green and band.

The New Year will be ushered in at the Alcyon on Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday with the talking picture "Show Folks," starring Lina Basquette and Eddie Quillan. In addition the vitaphone will bring the rich voice of George Dewey Washington and a musical sketch entitled, "Visions of Spain."

"The Perfect Crime," talking mystery play, with Clive Brook and Irene Rich, will be the attraction on Friday and Saturday. The program of vaudeville acts to be shown in connection with this picture includes George Jessel in talk, comedy, and song, Burnett's orchestra, and the latest story of "The Collegians."

daughter to live in her accustomed style. Many spats occur between the "in-laws." These are all deliciously handled in a manner skillfully guided to heighten comedy. The cast contains many names familiar to those who know their motion picture history.
