

Social Happenings in Winnetka & Hubbard Woods. by Ruth Risley

ACTIVITIES at Indian Hill Country club have been exceedingly gay this summer, with large attendances at the afternoon luncheon and bridge parties as well as at all of the dinner dances, both for young and older folks. Among those who entertained at Luncheon and bridge yesterday, Ladies' Day, were Mrs. Thomas P. Smith, Jr., Mrs. J. Parker Gowing, Mrs. Fenger Brown, Mrs. Roger Sherman, and Mrs. Phelps Hoyt. Elaborate preparations are now under way for the Junior dinner dance which is to take place at the clubhouse on the evening of Saturday, August 27. Since this will be the last of the gala occasions for the young folks before they start back to school again next month, it is expected that the affair will be a most interesting one.

Tuesday is Ladies' Day at Skokie Golf club, and among those who entertained at luncheon and bridge this past week were Mrs. J. V. Rathbone of Kenilworth, Mrs. D. Edwin Earle, Mrs. Charles F. Pearce, Mrs. C. Howard Searle, Mrs. L. C. Mowry, Mrs. Frank Miller, Mrs. Albert S. Webster, Mrs. Stanley Clague, Mrs. S. L. Williams, Mrs. A. J.
