

Club, Social Season To Open Soon With Promise of Interesting Events

Year Books and Programs Now in the Hands of the Printers; Successful Year Predicted With Many Important Social Events in View.

Within another month, persistently and potently as the red and yellow and orange will be flaunting their banners throughout the country side, painting the foliage in vivid hues, the city will be calling back vacationists to town to the din of the policeman's whistle, the sound of honking horns and the myriads of other busy noises.

Woman's club officers have been busily engaged in gathering material for their various year books, now in the hands of the printer, with the promise of readiness for delivery about the middle of September, and have all dashed away to the east, west or north for a belated season's rest.

The Woman's clubs are all looking forward to a most successful year, and with the excellent co-operation of the directors and members, as shown in previous years, assured.

Attractive Programs

Attractive programs, with interesting speakers, and delightful music have been worked out to the best possible advantage by the program chairmen, and are sure to be thoroughly enjoyed by the club members.

No longer is the Springtime, and the month of June to hold full sway in the matter of weddings, for the early months of this fall are filled with the nuptial days of our north shore young people.

Miss Verna Tucker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Willnam A. Tucker of Wilmette, will become the bride of Mr. Ren Lauren Blodgett of Madison, Wis., on Labor Day.

Another wedding of interest will be that of Miss Dorothy Taylor, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Taylor, Jr., of Kenilworth, who will become the bride of Walter G. Gerould of Evanston on the evening of September 10.

Ridgway-Clark Nuptials

Miss Harriette Ridgway, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Grant Ridgway, another Kenilworth bride-to-be, will be wedded to Mr. Samuel Clark of Wilmette some time in the fall.

Other autumn weddings will include Miss Elizabeth Klotz, daughter of Charles Klotz, of Winnetka, and Mr. Robert Bennett of Kenilworth; Miss Winifred Reinboth of Wilmette, and Mr. Harold Garwood of Evanston; Miss Ethel Beatrice Ostrom, of Winnetka, whose marriage to David Stuart Jones of Oakland, Cal., is to take place later in the season; Miss Mary Dennehy of Hubbard Woods, and Mr. Hempstead Washburne of Evanston, who will be married in September. Miss Madeleine McIlvaine, daughter of Mrs. William B. McIlvaine, of Hubbard Woods, who has been spending the summer down east, has set the early fall for her marriage to David E. McDougal of Riverside; and Miss Lucile Drake, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jonathan Drake, whose engagement is announced this week to Mr. Ferdinand Larson of Austin, has set the date for her marriage as early in October.

The Junior Dance scheduled on the Quilmette Country club program for Friday evening, September 16, has been moved forward a week to Friday evening, September 9. All of the juniors are invited to attend and to bring guests to this affair. The committee in charge of this party will include Mr. and Mrs. Dudley W. Letter, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. H. Higbee and Mr. and Mrs. Douglass C. Boyer.

Come with us to MEXICO

and visit the wonderful
Centennial Exposition
Mexico City, Sept. 12 to Oct. 12.
It is not so hot in Mexico! The temperature in Mexico City is always springlike—65 to 70 degrees. Come with us to the great Exposition in celebration of 100 years of Mexican independence from Spain, to be held in Mexico City from Sept. 12 to Oct. 12. Visit this quaint land of tropical beauty rapidly awakening to its heritage of commercial development. Plan today to make this trip.
The T. & S. Tours Co. invites you to join the first Mexican Special, which will leave Chicago about Sept. 1, under the personal supervision of Senor W. Hernandez, charge d'affaires of the Mexican Exposition. But you must make your reservation promptly—write, wire or phone today for particulars to
