

GOLBACH'S GROVE GOOD PICNIC SPOT

Chosen by Committee Because of Conveniences

While it had at first been planned to hold the New Trier Day outing in the American Legion park at Gross Point, investigation disclosed later that the proposed picnic grounds were inconveniently located with reference to the baseball field where the ball games and field events are to be held. Consequently, the general committee decided upon Golbach's Grove, Lake avenue, one block west of Ridge avenue, as the logical place for the outing.

Golbach's Grove was the scene of the outing two years ago and was found to be ideal for picnic purposes. It is situated directly across the street from the baseball field.

The grove is nicely shaded and large enough to accommodate a great crowd without the inconvenience of having anyone "get lost."

A large parking space for automobiles is provided in a field north of the grove.

Joe and Harry Are Getting Their Gangs All Primed

Joseph Mercer and Harry Roberts used to be great friends and all that, but "them days is gone forever."

The lads are most awfully mad at each other and so there's nothin' to do but stage a fight to settle the question—just like we did in the good old school days.

Harry and Joe, not bein' much on the fightin' game themselves, decided this week that they'd fight it out with the help of a gang of men, each. So's everybody could see the argument they reckoned as how New Trier Day would be the proper time.

Consequently Joe's Hubbard Woods Lumber Coal company lads are to hook up against Harry's husky heavers of the North Shore Ice company in a ball game, as one of the attractions at the New Trier outing.

Of course, Joe and Harry are not really angry at each other, but we had to have something to "hang this yarn."

NEW TRIER DAY WINNER TO PLAY GROSS POINT

An interesting incident growing out of plans for New Trier Day was the challenge issued this week by the Gross Point baseball team to the winner of the New Trier Day feature game between Glencoe and Wilmette.

The challenge, when transmitted to the contending clubs, was accepted without question and the game thus arranged for the future will be played within a few weeks.

Gross Point boasts a strong nine, recently recruited, and the fans in that vicinity feel their boys can topple any aggregation in the township. Well, they're to have the opportunity very soon.

Grand Marshal

Alfred C. Wolff, head of a Wilmette sheet metal and tinsmithing concern, assumes his customary duties as grand marshal of the New Trier Day street procession. Wolff has led many New Trier Day parades and his fellows in the New Trier Commercial association entertain no worries about that important feature of the annual picnic.

of the city beginning this fall as a result of tests made by the county nurse which showed that many pupils were underweight and improved greatly after being fed the lunches."

Miss Forberg Has a Busy Time With Picnic Details

Miss Ruth Forberg, efficient assistant secretary of the New Trier Commercial association, who is in charge of the organization's offices in the Brown building, Wilmette, is working diligently in the interest of New Trier Day.

Miss Forberg is answering many, many calls concerning the outing and is contributing valuable services in arranging many of the details of the big outing.
