

Many Happy Times Planned for Orrington Guests

Looking toward the ball room from the south roof garden. Refreshments will be served out-of-doors during the summer months.

WITH its unequalled facilities for entertainment The Orrington assures a most enjoyable measure of happy times for its guests.

The calendar of social events now being developed exclusively for guests provides for frequent musicales to be given by the very best artists in the quiet and ease of the spacious Tudor lounge. There will be stag parties for the gentlemen in their club room, afternoon cards and teas for the ladies in the Pompeian room, with special features and parties for the children and young people.

For those who enjoy dancing there will be cotillions and dances in the wonderful roof and mezzanine floor ballrooms.

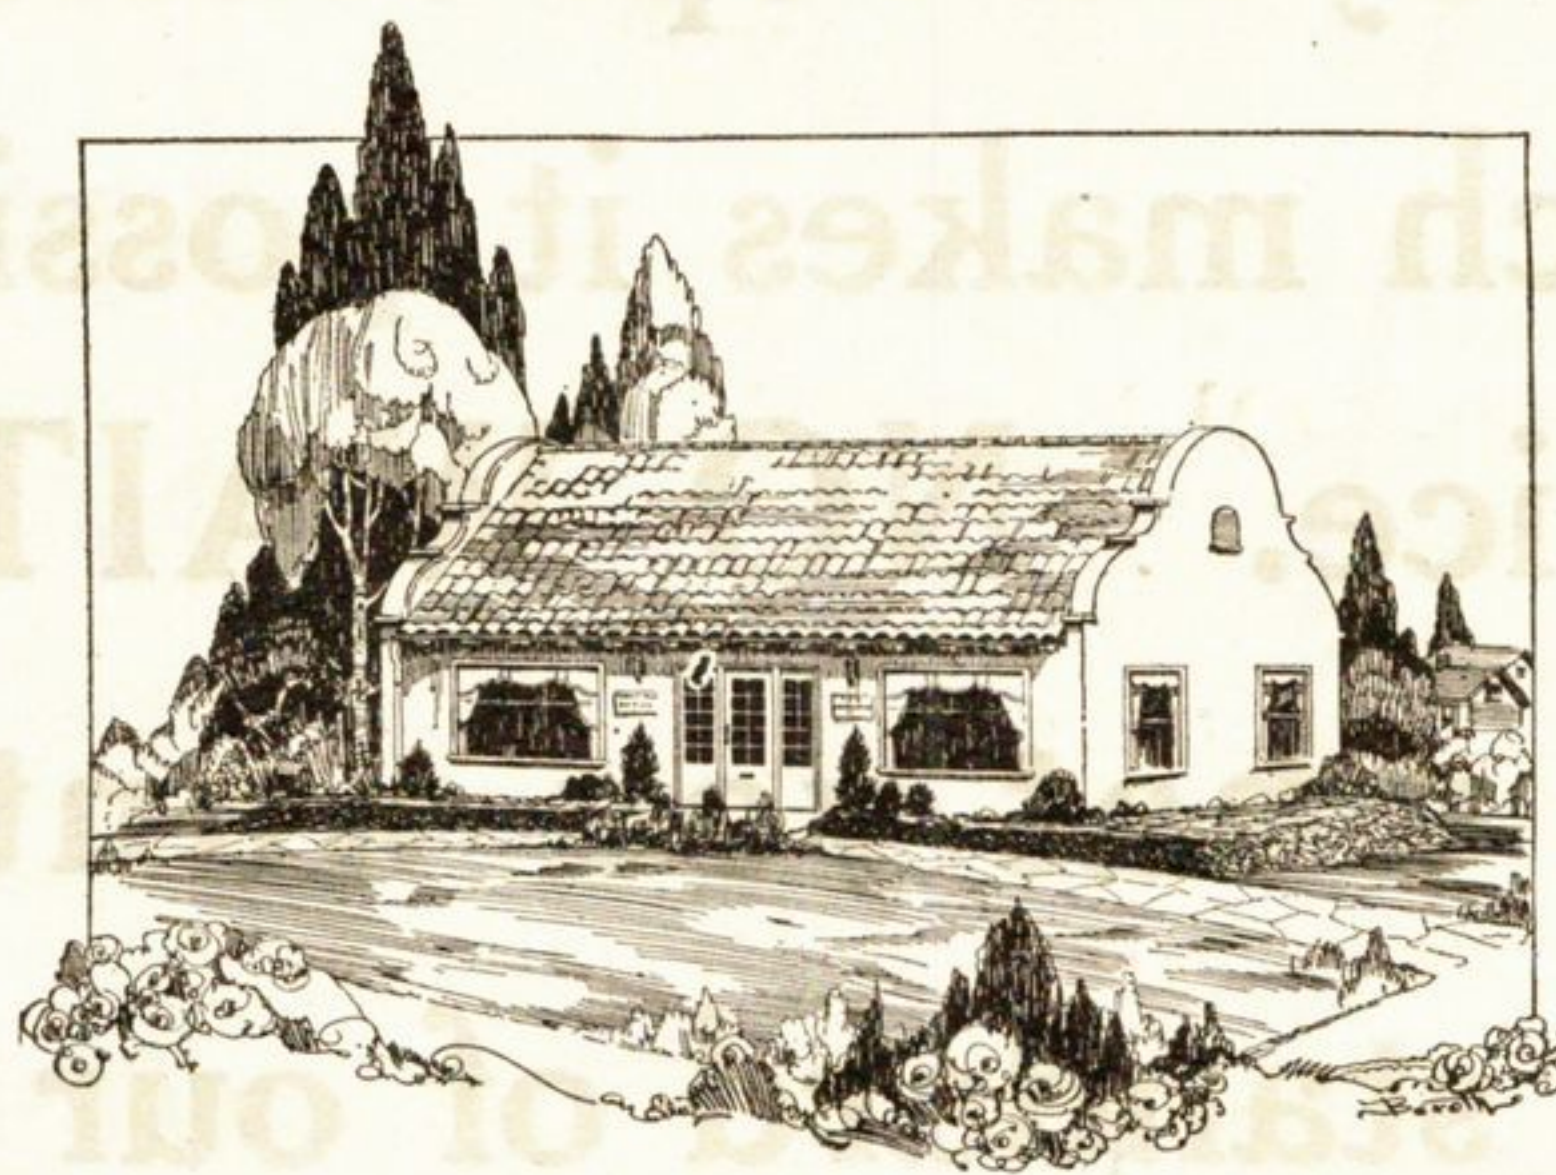

The holidays will come in with their share of Hallowe'en, Thanksgiving, Christmas, New Year's and similar parties. The smaller children will be entertained by an experienced young lady with stories, folk dances and playlets.

It is these complete plans for social events that will make living at The Orrington particularly enjoyable. There will be no garrish hurrah, no stiff formality but an abundance of good wholesome entertainment and merry times for all.

The guest list is fast nearing the limit of capacity but there are still a number of home-like accommodations available for those who make their reservations at once.

Ready September First

Many of the floors are now completely carpeted and truck loads of furniture are arriving daily. Everything will be in readiness for guests as originally scheduled and leases may be arranged for September first or later occupancy.
