THURSDAY, SEPT. 3, 1896.

The Week's Commercial Summary.

The price of silver declined to 66c per ounce in New York yesterday, and in London to 30 5-8d.

The earnings of the Canadian Pacific for the second week of August show an increase of $62,000.

The stocks of wheat at Toronto are 127,565 bushels as compared with $141,302 bushels last week and 7,743 bushels a year ago.

The imports into Europe for 52 weeks ending July 31 are 397,784,000 bushels of which 186,184,000 bushels went to the United Kingdom.

The report of grain traffic from the West last week showed a tonnage double that of the corresponding week in 1895, while the St. Paul Railway earnings increased less than $6,000.

Imports of merchandise at New York last week were $8,410,198, as against $10,313,458 in the same week last year, and for the past 31 weeks imports were $30,000,000 under those during the corresponding period of a year ago.

The visible supply of wheat in the United States and Canada is 45,876,000 bushels as against $36,392,000 a year ago and $63,920,000 two years ago. The amount on passage to Europe is now only $17,200,000 bushels as compared with 28,020,000 bushels a year ago.

Wholesale trade at Toronto is in pretty much the same condition as previously reported. Nearly all branches of business are quiet and featureless. The outlook is not particularly bright, but at the same time is not unfavorable. Bankers are very conservative in giving credits, and the disposition is to reduce discounts.

The egg season is opening early in England this year. Already 2,250 cases of Canadian eggs have arrived at Liverpool. At the same period last year only 75 cases had arrived. Firms have entered into large contracts for November and December delivery. Pickled eggs are quoted from 6s. 3d. to 6s. 9d. per long hundred of 10 dozen.

An ingenious method of testing the penetrative power of small projectiles has been tried in Germany by Herr Muller. A large water trough is divided in the bottom by transverse ribs, and closed at one end by thick gelatine plates. The shot is fired into the end of the trough, when the hole in the gelatine instantly closes up, preventing the escape of the water. Each shot is retained by the ribs where it falls, and its position is noted when the water is drawn off after the firing.

Getting close to the consumer, just as far as this is practicable, will do much to solve the question of profit in farming. The grower of the big staple crops cannot do this as well as the specialist, who may thus avoid some of the middleman's charges, which always come out of the producer. The market gardener, or the poultry raiser, in localities adjacent to large towns or cities, can often build up a profitable trade direct with families. But this requires forethought, good judgment, careful selection of attractive produce, integrity in dealing and persistent effort.—Exchange.

Here and There.

Some men are born rich, some have riches thrust upon them, and others go into the ice business.

The meeting of the coal trust reminds one that no matter how hot it is now, if he wants any warmth next winter he will have to pay well for it.

If General Weyler continues to "conquer Cuba," as he is doing now, it won't be many months before the Cuban army will be marching on Madrid.

They say gold is being hoarded, yet there are thousands of people in the country who are continually exchanging gold for silver. They are dentists.

It is difficult to imagine that in less than six months from now a roaring blizzard will be tearing through the country driving people into the arms of the coal trust.

A New York business man received the other day a check drawn on the 13th day of the month for $13.13, but as he is the 13th child in his family he cashed it without a moment's hesitation.

Li Hung Chang asked in London if the special train offered to him by the Pennsylvania railroad would carry him direct to Vancouver without change. It is ten to one that none of his English hosts could tell him.

The latest cure is the barefoot cure. It is alleged that many diseases can be helped, or permanently cured, by going barefooted through wet grass. It may be surmised that this cure will never be popular with shoemakers.

There is more than one way to make a fortune. Banker Wilson of New York has managed to pile up from $8,000,000 to $10,000,000 by a lifetime of hard work, but Mrs. Wilson, in a few short years, has married her sons and daughters to about $175,000,000.

There never was, and never will be, a universal panacea, in one remedy, for all ills to which flesh is heir—the very nature of many curatives being such that were the germs of other and differently seated diseases rooted in the system of the patient—what would relieve one ill, in turn would aggravate the other. We have, however, in Quinine Wine, when obtainable in a sound, unadulterated state, a remedy for many and grievous ills. By its gradual and judicious use, the frailest systems are led into convalescence and strength, by the influence which Quinine exerts on Nature's own restoratives. It relieves the drooping spirits of those with whom a chronic state of morbid despondency and lack of interest in life is a disease, and, by tranquilizing the nerves, disposes to sound and refreshing sleep—imparts vigor to the action of the blood, which, being stimulated, courses throughout the veins, strengthening the healthy animal functions of the system, thereby making activity a necessary result, strengthening the frame, and giving life to the digestive organs, which naturally demand increased substance—result, improved appetite. Northrop & Lyman of Toronto, have given to the public their superior Quinine Wine at the usual rate, and, gauged by the opinion of scientists, this wine approaches nearest perfection of any in the market. All druggists sell it.

DR. SUNSHINE.

With Health the World is a World of Sunshine—With Disease, a Dark, Gloomy, Prison-Like Abode—The Great South American Remedies Have Brought Back the Sunshine to Many a Life.

Rheumatism—What joyful news to the sufferer from chronic rheumatism or neuralgia! That instant relief and an absolute cure can be had in from one to three days by using the Great South American Rheumatic Cure seems incredible, but thousands say it's a fact, and here is the testimony of one: "For three years I suffered untold misery in my legs, for six months I was confined to my bed. I used all the ordinary remedies I could lay my hands on. South American Rheumatic Cure being brought to my notice, I procured a bottle and it gave me instant relief. A few bottles completely cured me."—George Denham, druggist, Petrolea.

Kidneys.—Spontaneous, unsolicited testimony is the highest recommend that can be given the Great South American Kidney Cure. What it has done it can do again. It is a kidney specific—gives quick relief in all kidney disorders, heals and strengthens. Michael McMullen, Chesley, Ont., writes: "I had been troubled with gravel and kidney disease for eight years. 'Remedies' and doctors could give me no relief—pain was so severe that I could not lie down or remain in one position any time. I procured a bottle of South American Kidney Cure, took it according to the directions. I got instant relief, the soreness all left me, and to-day I am cured of the dangerous trouble and recommend this wonderful remedy to all similarly affected."

The Nerves.—We live in a hurry and nine-tenths of our ailments are due to nervous exhaustion, impoverished blood or bad digestion. South American Nervine is a blood-builder; it tones the nerves and stimulates digestion. Thousands whose lives were a burden to them are to-day in excellent health because they have tested its marvelous power. W. H. Sherman of Morrisburg writes: "I was completely run down—a great sufferer from stomach and nervous troubles. Tried every medicine in the market with little or no relief. I obtained a bottle of South American Nervine. Before half of it was taken I had derived great benefit. Six bottles made me my own self again. I recommend it to everybody so afflicted, and cheerfully give it my testimony."

Failures in Canada.

There are honest bankrupts, men who have struggled manfully against heavy odds to pay their debts in full, and have failed. But to one whose duty it is to chronicle, from week to week, the bankruptcies in Canada, he cannot but be strongly impressed by the number of assignments to which may be justly attached more than a shadow of blame. There is a deplorable lack of business morality in Canada and the United States. The merchant who is at all inclined to dishonesty often receives from the jobber, in the shape of extravagant credit, every inducement to follow the natural bent of his mind. Merchants, who from the frequency of their assignments, might be styled chronic bankrupts, are bolstered up by the jobbers and carried along to the great disadvantage, and very often destruction, of honest traders. A merchant who attempts to pay his liabilities in full is in no position to compete with a neighbor who every now and then obtains a settlement at fifty cents on the dollar, or even less. The wholesale trade suffers from the ease with which long credits can be obtained, but their losses are scarcely heavier than that of legitimate retailers, who have everything to gain in the adoption of stricter methods in granting credit.—Monetary Times.

Live Up to Your Privileges.

If we read of some new fabric made in some foreign country which gave protection from cold, providing a healthful warmth in all sorts of weather, we would consider it wonderful and be envious of the people who could take advantage of it. But because the chamois is quite inexpensive and easy to get, perhaps some have not yet tested its merits and found out for themselves the splendid winter comfort a layer of it will impart to all outdoor garments. Its weather proof qualities are genuine, founded on the fact that it is made entirely from spruce fibre, and is therefore a complete non-conductor of cold. This, as well as its light weight, makes it an ideal addition to every one's fall and winter clothing.

Sarcasm.

"I want to pay this bill," he said to the hotel clerk. "But I think you have made a slight error here in my favor. I've been reading over the extras, and I cannot find that you have charged me anything for telling me you thought it might rain."—Emporium Echo.

Ideal Summer Resort.

Kill two birds with one stone. Spend a pleasant summer holiday at Oakville and get rid of the liquor or morphine habit once and for all at the same time. It will cost you a little more than if you go to an ordinary summer resort, but probably not half as much as you would spend on liquor in half the time. "Lakehurst," with its fine house, shady grounds, water front and excellent board, is preferable to most hotels, and you can leave your liquor curse behind you forever when your holiday is over. For full particulars address Manager, Lakehurst Institute, Oakville, Ont.

Cucumbers and melons are "forbidden fruit" to many persons so constituted that the least indulgence is followed by attacks of cholera, dysentery, griping, etc. These persons are not aware that they can indulge to their hearts content if they have on hand a bottle of Dr. J. D. Kellogg's Dysentery Cordial, a medicine that will give immediate relief, and is a sure cure for all summer complaints.

Ample Revenge.

"That feller Hankinson has been comin' to see my sister for six months," said Johnny, "and he's never give me a cent's worth of candy. But I got even with him last night."

"How?"
