In Brockville pressure is being brought to bear on the school board to have the teeth of the children inspected quarterly or semi annually by a competent dentist. And why not—the children might be spared much suffering in after years were this practice to become general, and the costs would be trifling.

Mr. R. J. Daley has a large staff of workmen engaged this week getting his mammoth skating rink in shape for the coming season. The rink is being made a little smaller to allow putting a roof on, which will make it more comfortable. Notwithstanding the fact that it is being made a little smaller, it will still be the largest covered rink in the Province, being 80 ft. in width and 206 ft. in length.

—CHARGED WITH FRAUD.—Thomas McIntyre and his son George, farmers living on the ninth concession of Markham were arrested on Monday on a charge of fraudulent removal of goods, and upon being arraigned before a Magistrate at Markham village pleaded not guilty and were remanded till Friday. McIntyre was a tenant on a farm owned by Col. Button, and a dispute occurring about some repairs refused to pay the rent, which amounted to about $500. A few days ago, he moved his goods to another farm and the criminal law was set in motion. The defendant's claim that they moved the goods openly and without seeking to hide their intentions.

—A DESERTED INFANT.—A few days ago Adeline Weller, a young woman who was employed in a city store, swore out an information against Herbert McIlmurry of the Township of Whitchurch, charging him with having caused her ruin and with having refused to carry out his promise of marriage. The court decided that there had been no promise of marriage and the case fell through. On Monday a woman with a shawl over her head and a baby in her arms went out to McIlmurry's home in the country, and securing a favorable opportunity entered the house, deposited the baby on the dining room table, and departed. Herbert found the deserted infant a few minutes later.

—THE GREAT JENNY LIND CONCERT.—Only a few remain who can recall the marvellous enthusiasm which attended Jenny Lind's first appearance in America, in the Old Castle Garden, in 1850. When she arrived from England 50,000 people were at the dock to greet her. That night 30,000 people surrounded her in front of her hotel. Seats for her concert sold at fabulous prices. On the night of her first American concert over 5000 people had gathered in the Battery before Castle Garden by six o'clock, although the concert did not begin until eight. When the doors were opened the crush was terrible, and within fifteen minutes every available inch of room other than the reserved seats was occupied, and 10,000 people were unable to get in. Then every rowboat, sailboat and steamer which could be pressed into service was engaged to lay in the water by the old Garden Hall crowded by people who could only hear the strain of Jenny's voice as it floated through the open windows. The whole scene has now been re-enacted by Hon. A. Oakley Hall, ex-Mayor of New York City, and he gives a wonderfully graphic recital of the event in the November Ladies Home Journal. The actual scene of Jenny, and singing her first song to her wonderful audience of thousands is shown in a picture copied by De Thulstrup from a photograph, while at the time.

Coal has been discovered in Algoma, and two Toronto gentlemen have gone to Sudbury to complete arrangements for shipping quantities to Toronto, the burning quantities of which they intend to exhibit. To expedite the getting of the coal from the mine the C. P. R. has offered to run a line from the main line to the mines, and a speedy output may be expected of coal which will compete favourably with the American artic.

—THE JESSIE ALEXANDER ENTERTAINMENT IN DALEY'S HALL ON FRIDAY EVENING LAST, UNDER THE AUSPICES OF THE BAPTIST CHURCH, WAS WELL ATTENDED. THE MANAGING COMMITTEE NO DOUBT OVERLOOKED THE PRESS IN EXTENDING THE USUAL COURTESIES, CONSEQUENTLY WE ARE UNABLE TO GIVE A FULL REPORT.

MARTIN, THE POPULAR HOST AND HOSTESS OF THE QUEEN'S HOTEL, WERE OUT DRIVING AND WERE RETURNING FROM GOODWOOD THEIR HORSE BECAME FRIGHTENED, A SHORT DISTANCE THIS SIDE OF GOODWOOD, AT A BIG DOG WHICH SUDDENLY SPRANG FROM A FENCE CORNER ONTO THE ROAD. THE HORSE JUMPED INTO THE OPPOSITE DITCH AND UPSIDE THE BUGGY, THROWING THE OCCUPANTS OUT AND BREAKING MRS. MARTIN'S ARM JUST BELOW THE ELBOW. MR. MARTIN MANAGED TO RETAIN A GOOD HOLD OF THE LINES AND PREVENTED THE HORSE FROM RUNNING AWAY. MR. MARTIN ESCAPED WITH BUT A SLIGHT SHAKING UP. AFTER A FEW MINUTES THEY RESUMED THEIR DRIVE HOME, WHERE A DOCTOR WAS CALLED TO DRESS THE BROKEN LIMB, WHICH WE ARE PLEASED TO SAY IS DOING NICELY.

THE FLAMES SPREAD TO THE HOUSE WHICH, DESPITE THE EFFORTS OF THE FIREMEN, WAS DESTROYED, WITH ALL ITS CONTENTS, INCLUDING $130 IN CASH. AS THE FIRE WAS CLEARLY OF INCENDIARY ORIGIN, IT IS SUSPECTED THAT THE TWO TRAMPS RETURNED DURING THE NIGHT AND FIRED THE BARN. THE DAMAGE WILL AMOUNT TO ABOUT $2,000; INSURED FOR $1,200.

—A DESERTED INFANT.—A FEW DAYS AGO ADELINE WELLER, A YOUNG WOMAN WHO WAS EMPLOYED IN A CITY STORE, SPOKE OUT AN INFORMATION AGAINST HERBERT MCILMURRAY OF THE TOWNSHIP OF WHITCHURCH, CHARGING HIM WITH HAVING CAUSED HER RUIN AND WITH HAVING REFUSED TO CARRY OUT HIS PROMISE OF MARRIAGE. THE COURT DECIDED THAT THERE HAD BEEN NO PROMISE OF MARRIAGE AND THE CASE FELL THROUGH. ON MONDAY A WOMAN WITH A SHAWL OVER HER HEAD AND A BABY IN HER ARMS WENT OUT TO MCILMURRAY'S HOME IN THE COUNTRY, AND SECURING A FAVORABLE OPPORTUNITY ENTERED THE HOUSE, DEPOSITED THE BABY ON THE DINING ROOM TABLE, AND DEPARTED. THE WHOLE SCENE HAS NOW BEEN RE-ENACTED BY HON. A. OAKLEY HALL, EX-MAYOR OF NEW YORK CITY, AND HE GIVES A WONDERFULLY GRAPHIC RECITAL OF THE EVENT IN THE NOVEMBER LADIES HOME JOURNAL.
