The Ladies Mission Circle met at the home of Mrs. Wm. Hoover Thursday afternoon last. A large number of members and friends were present. A very interesting time was spent. Interesting papers and readings were given by Mrs. Wm. Boothe, Mrs. Mrs. McGillivray, Mrs. Wm. King, Mrs. Geo. Ferrier and Mrs. Dafoo. A solo by Mrs. McIntosh, instrumental music by Mrs. H. Hopkins. Deep regret was expressed by the President and members at the removal to Ashburn of Mrs. Armour Ellis secretary and organist of the Circle. Mrs. Ellis has been a faithful and much loved member for a number of years, therefore her loss is keenly felt. Mrs. Hoover was appointed secretary and Miss Lilly Wilson organist. Mrs. Wm. King was appointed vice president of the Mission Band. After the meeting Mrs. Hoover entertained all present with a number of invited friends to an excellent tea. A delightful and sociable time was spent for a couple of hours. At 8 o'clock Rev. Judson McIntosh called the meeting to order and conducted the Thursday evening prayer meeting, thus making a good ending, all departing to their respective homes well pleased with the hospitality of Mr. and Mrs. Hoover.
