Figs, Dates, Candies for Christmas, at A. G. Brown's.

RINK OPENING.—A large number of young people enjoyed the first skating of the season on Saturday night. The soft weather since then has interrupted the pleasure of that amusement.

CHRISTMAS PURCHASES.—Our streets and business houses presented a lively appearance on Monday, and from enquiring amongst some of the business men a good trade is reported, notwithstanding unfavorable roads and weather.

All kinds of Oat Meal and Porridge Meals at A. G. Brown's.

Mr. Geo. Urquhart narrowly escaped being seriously hurt while putting up Mr. Monro's sign. The ladder slipped, and had it not been for the telegraph pole catching the ladder, she would have fallen a distance of about 15 feet.

Christmas Cards, Albums, Bibles and Gift Books in great variety at Monro's Book Store.

PARTY AT PROVIDENCE BAPTIST CHURCH.—On Christmas evening the members of this church gave their annual party. Quite a number went from Stouffville and report a crowded house, a first-class supper, and a good entertainment. What more could they want?

Where are you going? Oh, I am going to James Miller's for some—Oysters—the best place to get them.

TEA AND LECTURE.—On New Year's day the Methodist Church of this village will hold their annual tea, which will be served in the building adjoining Daley's Hall from 5 to 7.30 p. m. At 7.30 the Rev. Manly Benson, of Toronto, will deliver his celebrated lecture on "Men Wanted." Music will be rendered by the church choir, assisted by the Orchestra. Admission prices as usual.

Wax and other dolls, Workboxes, Vases, Toilet cases, Perfume cases, purses and other goods suitable for Christmas Presents at R. Rowan's.

METHODIST S. S. CHRISTMAS TREE.—A large assembly gathered in Daley's Hall on Christmas night to enjoy the annual S. S. entertainment and witness the distribution of presents. The superintendent, Mr. D. Stouffer, presided, and opened the meeting, after the usual singing and prayer, by a short address of greeting and valediction. The Secretary, Mr. F. E. Clendenen, then presented the report of the school, which showed it to be in a satisfactory state as to members and finance. Then the Rev. Geo. Brown in a neat speech presented the claims of the Sunday school upon the parents. "The Morning Star," a seasonable cantata, was very acceptably rendered by the scholars, and after every scholar and a large number of friends of the school had received a present from the tree, the proceedings were closed. Proceeds $31.35.

Gould's Roller Flour, Mount Albert and Green River at A. G. Brown's.

BIG SALE.—See large posters announcing Raymer Bros. big sale on Saturday 29th inst. The Mill property, two houses and lots besides a lot of valuable personal property will be sold. Sale to begin at 11 o'clock a. m. sharp. James O'Brien, Auctioneer.

CARRIER BOYS' ADDRESS.—Don't fail to make our carrier-boy feel good when he calls on New Year's Eve or New Year's Morn. with his address. He takes a great many steps in delivering the papers every week. You are not expected to give him more than 50 cents.

FELT Slippers for 25 cents per pair at Daley's.

SWEED-EL-A-DINK-TUM-BUMB.—The happy young couple who were married on Church St. on Xmas day were serenaded in the evening by a number of our "upper ten" young men. The familiar college air of Sweed-el-a-dink-tum-bumb. was made to do duty, for the occasion. We wonder if there were any college students among those bad boys.

SPLENDID assortment of Misses' and Children's overshoots at Daley's.

A. O. U. W.—The following officers were elected at the regular meeting of the A. O. U. W. on Monday evening Dec. 17th:—P. M. W., N. J. Armstrong; M. W., H. Johnson; Foreman, W. H. Silvester; Overseer, H. W. Woodgate; Recorder, J. Urquhart; Financier, A. G. Brown; Receiver Jacob Burkholder; Guide, Joel Nendick; J. T. Daley; O. W., S. Burkholder.

All persons who neglect to make those registrations are liable to a fine of $20 and costs.

IMPROVED Felt Socks, Snag proof rubbers, (heavy edge,) Mackinaw Stockings, (frost proof) at Daley's—the Leading Shoe House.

SUDDEN DEATH.—On Monday morning last Peter Kirby, son of Henry Kirby, of Whitechurch, a young man of about 20 years was suddenly called away. He was in fair health until Saturday last when he was attacked with that dread disease, diabetes, and lived only until Monday. This is the second son Mr. Kirby has lost within a few years from this disease. We extend our sympathy.

St. Leon Water, the great remedy for Dyspepsia, habitual constipation, etc. on draft at Rowan's Drug Store. Only ten cents per quart.

ACCIDENT.—On Monday evening last, Willie Holden, the young son of Mr. Trueman Holden, of Markham, met with a painful accident. The father and the lad's uncle were cutting straw in the cutting box, when the little fellow, who was playing around the barn, approached unnoticed and by some means got his hand into the gearing, crushing the fingers terribly. Dr. Freel was summoned, and found it necessary to amputate the third finger of the right hand.

SCALY.—We hear complaints that some of the poultry brought to market last week was not what it seemed to be. The turkeys belonging to one party had been drawn, beheaded and also had the feet cut off, giving them the appearance of being all ready for stuffing. On close inspection, however, and intending purchaser discovered that the head, legs, crop, gizzard, etc., had been stuffed into the birds in order that the dishonest vendor might realize a cent or two more per pound.

BOARD OF HEALTH.

To the Local Board of Health, GENTLEMEN,—Your Secretary would beg leave to submit to you his annual report.

For the first nine months of this year we enjoyed the usual unbroken freedom from epidemic or any severe illness and while, as in last year we were alarmed in August at the appearance of diphtheria, so in October 7th of this year we were aroused to active duty by the startling information that a case of smallpox was surely developed in our village. As you are all aware success has rewarded the stringent and diligent means resorted to, and after the utmost effort to confine the plague and stamp it out, we are now most happy to be able to report the convalescence of the three afflicted patients, and the general and certain disappearance of the disease. A large number our residents have been vaccinated and we feel confident that comparative safety from a return of the same may be felt and enjoyed by us. The expense incurred in the case was confined to about $100 for which we have much reason to congratulate ourselves.

I have the honor, gentlemen, to be your most obedient servant,
H. W. WOODGATE, Secretary.
W. B. SANDERS, Chairman, pro tem.

Adopted Dec. 15th, 1888.

Your wasted cheeks may have all the plumpness and bloom of health through your use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla. This time-honored remedy still leads the van. It improves digestion, purifies the blood, and invigorates the system. Give it a trial.
