SILOAM

We understand that Mr. F. Silver-sides has purchased from Mr. John Williamson of Whitechurch, a span of valuable draught horses.

On Sunday the wife of Mr. Thomas Eckhardt died of consumption. She leaves a husband and five children to mourn their sad loss.

RINGWOOD.

The Hon. L. M. Jones, of Winnipeg, spent Xmas with his sisters, Mrs. Silvester and Mrs. R. Button.

The following people from the city spent Xmas holidays in our little city. Mr. A. Lehman, and Family; Mr. and Mrs. G. Phillips; Mr. and Mrs. John McPherson; The Messrs. Mitchell, of Knox College; H. B. Wideman, of the Toronto School of Medicine; G. E. Silvester, of the school of Practical Science; and Messrs. T. and E. Stouffer.

Mr. Levi Brownsberger is down from the North-West for a couple of months.

PALESTINE.

Some one might have said that misfortunes never come singly. Whether it was said, or yet remains to be said it seems to be true of a family residing in our oriental town. One of our most enterprising and energetic young men sustained another serious loss last week while experimenting at a bee. I ought to inform the reader that the bee referred to was not a black bee, an Italian bee, or a bumble bee, but a regular old-fashioned Canadian bee. Whether there was another anthropos on the other side of the log I have not been informed, but it seems this unfortunate young man was playing see-saw across the log. He had doubtless become so intensely earnest as to have forgotten that there was danger ahead. But so it was. Having set his mark high, and being electrified with the thought of the laurels of the championship, he brought all his energies to bear. The faithful instrument however with which he was playing took a firm grip of the log and persisted in hanging on. The critical moment had come. His reputation was at stake. Then came a movement of painful suspense. It was but a moment, then summoning all the wondrous powers of his erratic nature he put forth a determined, and desperate effort, resolved to win or die. But alas! the stubborn instrument refused to move. So heavy was the pressure brought to bear upon it that its teeth fairly snapped with rage, but still the fight went on. All eyes were now turned upon the scene. The victory was near at hand. A ringing sound is heard, an astonished look and all is over. Fragments and splinters, oh horror! Loss about $1. or a dollar apiece.

What might have proved a painful if not serious accident to another of our citizens, was averted by a very simple little thing. Jerry Shell succeeded in securing the loan of Squire Jones' axe for the purpose of cleaving wood. While engaged in the operation, he struck an unlucky blow, causing the axe to descend upon his foot. The foot was not much damaged, neither was the axe as the latter stood in need of grinding.

Mr. Lupton who has been sick for some time, is slowly recovering.

Mrs. G. B. Quantz has so far recovered from the effects of her fall, as to be able to be in her accustomed seat in the house of the Lord on Sabbath last.

The Rev. Mr. Percy dined with Mr. W. H. Jones, while passing up to his Franklin appointment on Sabbath last.

Your regular correspondent will doubtless resume his duties when the election excitement has died away.

There are cases of consumption so far advanced that Bickle's Anti-Consumptive Syrup will not cure but none so bad that it will not give relief. For coughs, colds and all affections of the throat, lungs and chest, it is a specific which has never been known to fail. It promotes a free and easy expectoration; thereby removing the phlegm, and gives the diseased parts a chance to heal.

Josiah McQuillan, of Strahroy, was found dead on Wednesday morning in a small stream two miles from town. He left his residence about 5 p. m. on Tuesday, saying he would return at eight. There is suspicion of foul play as deceased was in apparent good health and the water in the creek was only about 18 inches deep.

The Proprietors of Parmelee's Pills are constantly receiving letters similar to the following, which explains itself. Mr. John A. Beam, Waterloo, Ont., writes: "I never used any medicine that can equal Parmelee's Pills for Dyspepsia or Liver and Kidney Complaints. The relief experienced after using them was wonderful." As a safe family medicine Parmelee's Vegetable Pills can be given in all cases requiring a Cathartic.
