Address THE TRIBUNE, STOUFFVILLE, ONT.

We have received a copy of the official Public Accounts of Canada, for year ending June 1888, but have not yet had time to read it carefully but we give a few figures gleaned from its pages. Any one interested in the matter of the finances of Canada can drop in and examine it.

Net debt of Canada in 1888	$34,531,358
Increase over 1887	7,216,582
Total Receipts from consolidated fund	35,908,463
Total Expenditure on consolidated fund	36,718,494
Deficit	810,031
Savings Bank deposits	7,722,330
Total amount to credit of depositors	20,689,032
Amounts paid to superannuated public officers during year	212,773

The report of the Postmaster General is also to hand and we call a few important facts for the benefit of our readers.

Net revenue of department	$96,397
Net expenditure	$53,397
Excess of revenue over expenditure	$43,000
Dead letters received	916,929
Dead letters on hand at the end of June 1888	10,103

At the beginning of the New Year we are re-arranging our subscription list and we notice the names of several who have paid up to January 1st and others who have not paid at all. In order to ensure satisfaction we request that those who are in arrears will remember us and those who wish the paper continued will advise us at once. Remember our terms are One Dollar in advance.

We have not indulged in any boasting as to improvements in the appearance and print of the TRIBUNE but leave it to your good judgment to say if it is not worthy of your patronage.

We intend to place our paper in the front rank of Canadian weeklies and if our readers will co-operate by sending a letter occasionally or regularly from their own neighborhood we shall have no difficulty in making our columns interesting to all.

If you are in town and have a few moments leisure come in and see us and we shall be pleased to show you our facilities for turning out first class work.

A MISTAKE.

We have been informed by a number of our Stouffville readers that it was a great mistake on our part last week not to publish the names of all the nominees to the different offices. It seemed to us that as the nominations were on Monday night, that to publish in Friday's paper all those names would be to tell the people of Stouffville what they already knew quite as well as we did ourselves. The best and in fact the only reason advanced for publishing all the names was that those who declined would be able to send a copy of the TRIBUNE to their friends at a distance who might be interested. We confess that idea never occurred to us, a fact we exceedingly regret. As that is a matter which can still be attended to, we have therefore much pleasure in intimating to the friends of the following gentlemen the fact that said gentlemen were nominated for office in Stouffville at the late municipal nominations but for reasons best known to themselves, decided not to stand for election. For Reeve, Mr. W. P. Hartney. Councillors—Messrs. Joel Baker, Wm. Mason, W. P. Hartney, N. J. Armstrong, E. J. C. Morris, Jacob Heisey, Geo. Wagg, G. H. Kemp, J. G. Clarke, J. A. Todd, Jos. Hunter, S. M. Warriner.

Eminent physicians everywhere recommend Ayer's Cherry Pectoral as the most reliable remedy that can be had for colds, coughs, and all pulmonary disorders. Ask your druggist for Ayer's Almanac; it is the best publication of the kind, and full of information.

CORRESPONDENCE.

We wish it to be distinctly understood that we do not hold ourselves responsible for the opinions advanced by our correspondents. Correspondents may write over a pseudonym if they choose, but the real name must accompany each communication.

to the Editor of the Trybune.

Dear Sir,
I have that I wud like to rite for your paper but i roat to a paper wunst and they did not put in what i rote so i thought if yu wud put in just what i say i wud like it. Well, i have not had as good skoolin as sum other fokes, but i do pertend to no a thing or 2. In the fust place i want to tell yu about our skool. We hed a good teacher last year, Mister grimes was his name but a few old cranks in our sexyun got mad about nothin an bothered Mr. grimes till he got mad to and said he wudent stop any way. Now we hev got a nu e man an i hop our folks will try and give him a fare sho an not try to see how much folt they can find. Now i like to go and visit skool wuns in a while and see how my boys and gals are progressin and kinder encourage the teacher bi lettin him see that there is at lest wun chap in the sexyun hoo takes an interest in the young and risin generashun and i beleve in allowin the master to run the skool and not a few old wimmen who cant manage there own 3 or 4 kids let alone 40 or 50 of other fokeses, and besides, that is the teachers bisnes and if some fussee old woman nos how to do it bettern the teacher the trustees had better sack the teacher and hier the old woman, the teacher ot to get a good decent sallare if a man wants a good article he has got to pay for it. Same about teachers. I dont beleve yu ken git much of a teacher for 350 dollars the feller that ol teach for that aint no good for ennything els yu bet. Now as i kalkilate to rite agin i wont tell all i no this time but will conclude by sayin that i like yure paper fust class and hope it will be a success. Hopin also that mister grimes will succeed in getting a sootable place.

I am sur vures trooly
JAMES PLOWLINE.

Hobbs Corners P. O.
P. S.—I send 2 dolers wun fer my paper and the tother fer my nabur Jim Gibbs hoo wants to take it to.—J. P.

We especially appreciate the "explanatory notes" accompanying the above, and in order to do Mr. P. full justice, we publish his letter verbatim et literatim in the hope that he will be satisfied and write again.—Ed.

A. S. Leaney seconded by H. Raymer moved that the council do now adjourn sine die.

THE ALTAR.

GAMSBY-ARMSTRONG.—At the residence of the bride's parents Stouffville on Wednesday Jan. 9 by the Rev. J. Willoughby, Maggie eldest daughter of N. J. Armstrong to Mr. E. Gamsby of Orono.

CATARRH.

CATARRH, DEAFNESS—HAY FEVER.

A NEW HOME TREATMENT.

Sufferers are not generally aware that these diseases are contagious, or that they are due to the presence of living parasites in the lining membrane of the nose and eustachian tubes. Microscopic research, however, has proved this to be a fact, and the result is that a simple remedy has been formulated whereby catarrh, catarrh, deafness and hay fever are permanently cured in from one to three simple applications made at home by the patient once in two weeks. N. B.—For catarrhal discharges peculiar to females (white) this remedy is a specific. A pamphlet explaining this new treatment is sent on receipt of ten cents by A. H. DIXON & SONS, 303 West King Street, Toronto, Canada.—Scientific American.

Sufferers from catarrhal troubles should read the above carefully.

"Did n't Know 't was Loaded"

May do for a stupid boy's excuse; but what can be said for the parent who sees his child languishing daily and fails to recognize the want of a tonic and blood-purifier? Formerly, a course of bitters, or sulphur and molasses, was the rule in well-regulated families; but now all intelligent households keep Ayer's Sarsaparilla, which is at once pleasant to the taste, and the most searching and effective blood medicine ever discovered.

Nathan S. Cleveland, 27 E. Canton St., Boston, writes: "My daughter, now 21 years old, was in perfect health until a year ago when she began to complain of fatigue, headache, debility, dizziness, indigestion, and loss of appetite. I concluded that all her complaints originated in impure blood, and induced her to take Ayer's Sarsaparilla. This medicine soon restored her blood-making organs to healthy action, and in due time reestablished her former health. I find Ayer's Sarsaparilla a most valuable remedy for the leucorrhoea and debility incident to spring time."

J. Castright, Brooklyn Power Co., Brooklyn, N. Y., writes: "As a Spring Medicine, I find a splendid substitute for the old-time compounds in Ayer's Sarsaparilla, with a few doses of Ayer's Pills. After their use, I feel fresher and stronger to go through the summer."
