

DISTRICT NEWS.

BLOOMINGTON.

Our new teacher, J. L. Hoshal, entered upon his duties on Thursday. One of our citizens disappeared some weeks ago, and no trace of him has been discovered since.

LEMONVILLE.

Mrs. Young, wife of Wm. Young, is now recovering from a long and severe attack of typhoid fever.

Within a month three members of the family of Jonas Cook of the 6th con. Whitechurch, have died of diphtheria. Miss Lownsbrough and Miss Mabel Piangle, of Unionville, are the guests of W.S. White, P.M., and Mr. J.P. Davis, respectively.

An interesting programme including an address by the Rev. J. Willoughby of Stouffville, will be rendered at the Gospel Temperance meeting to be held on Friday evening, (to-night.) Friends of temperance are expected to turn out in large numbers.

GREEN RIVER.

Not much excitement over the election.

Mr. W. G. Barns is very busy at the brush business.

Mr. Fawcett Wilson has bought out the M.T.G. Co. and is prepared to do all kinds of sawing, turning, etc.

With regret we chronicle the death of Miss Lily Bryant, daughter of the late Joseph Bryant, which took place on Saturday 29th ult.

Messrs. Hoover and McKay will still be found at their elevator, Green River station, prepared to receive any quantity of barley and peas.

Our band boys are making arrangements to give a grand musical entertainment on the evening of January 24th of which further notice will be given.

Mr. J. W. Spence, one of our Green River boys, lately in the employ of Long Bros., Collingwood, has accepted the position of principal at the Benborough Short Hand Institute, Toronto.

MARK TWAIN'S COURTSHIP.

Mark Twain, if he is in the mood, will tell the story of his own courtship in a manner worthy of the greatest of living humorists. When he first met the lady who afterward became his wife he was not so distinguished as now, his origin was humble, and for some years of his life he had been a pilot on the Mississippi river.

The future Mrs. Clemens was a woman of position and fortune; her father was a judge and doubtless expected family and social importance in his son-in-law. Clemens, however, became interested in his daughter and after a while proposed, but was rejected.

"Well," he said to the lady, "I didn't much believe you'd have me, but I thought I'd try."

After a while he "tried" again, with the same result, but then remarked with his celebrated drawl: "I think a great deal more of you than if you'd said 'Yes,' but it's hard to bear."

MUNICIPAL ELECTIONS.

STOUFFVILLE.

No doubt the candidates for municipal honors all over our fair province hailed with delight the beautiful mantle of snow that fell on Sunday night covering up the rough black streets and giving them a chance to brush the dust off their cutters and furbish up their bright jangling bells.

As the day wore on it was seen that considerable efforts were being made by all in order not to be outstripped, though in different degrees of earnestness. When five o'clock arrived matters were at anything but fever heat except among some local sports who had wagered the cigars on the result.

The village council for 1889 will therefore be made up as follows:— Reeve, W. B. Sanders; Councillors, R. Sangster, A. S. Leano, Fred Wilson, Geo. Flint.

A good deal of scheming was done in connection with the election ever since nomination day, especially on the day of election, but we have not yet learned to what extent the wire pulling succeeded. Mr. Urquhart's defeat was a genuine surprise to the majority of the electors, and various reasons are given in explanation, the most likely one being that he failed to get enough votes.

WHITECHURCH.

Crowds of men gathered at township headquarters after five on Monday night, and as the returns came in and it became apparent that the favorite on this side of the township was surely elected the enthusiasm began to increase with the crowd.

The polling sub-divisions are as follows: No. 1, Whiterose, No. 2, Lemonville, No. 3, Bloomington, No. 4, Bogartown, No. 5, Pine Orchard, No. 6, Vivian.

The township council will therefore be composed of the following members:— Reeve, M. Jones; 1st Deputy Reeve S. Baker; 2nd Deputy Reeve Wm. McCormack; Councillors A. Haines, Ed. Widfield.

MARKHAM TOWNSHIP.

Reeve—Anthony Forsyth, 15; 1st Deputy—H. B. Schmidt, 85; 2nd Deputy—J. B. Gould, 74; 3rd Deputy—Jonathan Slater, accla.; Councillor—Walter Scott, 68.
