Colic and Kidney Difficulty.—Mr. J. W. Wilder, J. P., Lafargeville, N. Y., writes:—"I am subject to severe attacks of Colic and Kidney Difficulty, and find Parmelee's Pills afford me great relief while all other remedies have failed. They are the best I have ever used." In fact so great is the power of this medicine to cleanse and purify, that diseases of almost every name and nature are driven from the body.

We believe A. G. Brown's goods are right—and cheap.

LOCAL ITEMS.

13 lbs Thorley Horse food at A. G. Brown's for $1.00.

OVER SUNDAY.—The Mansion House had over 30 guests including the Bell Ringers on Sunday last.

Hand-sleighs and Sleigh Bells at 25 per cent discount for thirty days at Silvester and Dougherty's.

SCHOOL BOARD.—The first meeting of School Board was held on Wednesday at 1 p. m. at which Mr. John Brown was elected chairman and Mr. J. Urquhart Sec'y-Treasurer.

10 lbs good Tea dust at A. G. Brown's for $1.00.

BELL-RINGERS.—The concert on Saturday night was "taken in" by a large number of people from the village and surrounding country. The music especially that of the band was excellent and the little people were great favorites.

A LIVELY CORPSE.—Mr. M. Jones, of Bloomington who was reported dead during the last few days of December turned out to be a very lively corpse on the day of election in Whitechurch. 163 is not a bad majority for a dead man. Seneca appeared to be just about as dead as he got 160.

Call and see the 50c. and 75c. lot of Shoes and Slippers at Daley's shoe house.

BAND CONCERT.—Posters are out announcing an entertainment to be held at Green River on the evening of Thursday January 24th in aid of the Green River Band. The following persons will take part:—N. Stouffer, T. Raper, J. Gregg, E. Wilson, H. J. Clarry, Dr. Freil, Mrs. and Miss Hopkins. The name of Miss McCarty, pianiste, is unintentionally omitted in the bills. Let everybody go.

FIRE STATIONS.—With commendable energy, our council have provided two engines to protect the town from losses by fire. They will be placed, No. 1 in Rayer's carriage warehouse, and No. 2 in a station built between Bovair's barber shop and Johnson's store. Almost all the young men are enrolled in the Fire Brigade and divided into two companies so as to man the engines at a moment's notice. May it be long before their services are required.

TRUNKS, VALISES AND SATCHELS at Daley's cheap shoe store.

ARM IN SLING.—Recently an old lady on leaving a city omnibus discovered that she had been relieved of her purse and on investigation it proved to be the work of a festive pick-pocket who had sat next to her with a mock arm in a sling and the real one in her pocket. One of these scamps was in town recently and some enterprising persons made an examination of his arm and found it sound as possible. Beware of slings. They are dangerous things.

Overshoes, Moccasins and Slippers at very low prices at Daley's Shoe House.

TEMPERANCE MEETING.—The regular meeting of the Stouffville Gospel Temperance Society was held on Monday evening last. A fair audience greeted the excellent programme that was rendered, consisting of a reading by Miss E. Jamieson, a recitation by Miss Gertie Daley, Duet by Miss L. Baker and Mr. Walter McCarty. Solo by Miss L. Baker, Address by Rev. G. Brown. Excellent music was furnished by the Glee Club. These meetings are very interesting and should be well patronized.

MOCK-PARLIAMENT.—All young men interested in the formation of a society to discuss live political questions are requested to meet on Friday evening (to-night) at 8 o'clock at the TRIBUNE office. Differences of political creed need debar no one from attending and it is expected that all who can will have some ideas no matter how crude, as to whether a mock parliament would be the best means to improve our minds and at the same time pass a pleasant evening.

KNOCKERS.—Two strangers who report themselves wealthy capitalists from the Southern States also ambassadors for Prince Bismark of Germany have been doing the town of late, and on Monday evening dropped in where some of the boys were practising the manly art. They at once expressed a desire to give our young men a few pointers and were soon accommodated by the Professor and Little Ichard. After having a few rounds they took their departure both sadder and wiser for their experience. The usually bald and shiny pate of Jasper was as red as a gobbler's, while his mates curly locks were a dishevelled appearance. They took with them what they expected to give—a few pointers.

A. G. Brown will occupy Kemp's New Store about 1st February.

5 lbs good Green tea at A. G. Brown's for $1.00.

SERENADE.—If our excellent Band should take a notion to honor the members-elect of the village council with some music some fine evening in the near future isn't it likely that all concerned would feel bappy and depart contented?

For an elegant purse go to Hamilton's.

SPORTS.

TROTTING MATCH.

A matched race for $25 a side took place outside the corporation last Friday afternoon between F. D. Miller's (Mansion House) Horse "War Cloud" and G. W. Patterson's mare "Topsy" after scoring several times both horses got off in good shape. Topsy winning the first heat by two lengths, the second heat was a repetition of the first Topsy winning the race by two straights Chas. Greenwood, of Newmarket and M. Gordon Baker, of Hamilton, acted judges.

ANOTHER ACCOUNT.

RACE.—An interesting event which was taken in by several village sports; was a race for the cigars between George's "Topsy" and F. D. M.'s "War Cloud." The first heat resulted in a draw as would the second also, only that Topsy couldn't draw fast enough.

A dispatch from Winnipeg to the Globe says that is quite probable that Ed. Kelly will come to Markham Ont. to play Mr. Fleming for the checker championship of Canada.

For Pipes, Cigars and Smoker's Supplies Hamilton takes the cake.

Leading physicians recommend Ayer's Sarsaparilla. Old and young take it with perfect safety. It cleanses the blood, strengthens the nerves, and vitalizes the system. Popular experience has long placed this medicine at the head of tonic alternatives. Mouth Organs the largest stock in town: Boys see them at Hamilton's.

HYMENS.

On Wednesday last, enlivened by one of the which by the way, a king epidemic but which this dreary old world. The happy event referred to marriage of Miss Matilda daughter of H. W. Wood, esteemed Clerk, to Mr. G. T. R. The ceremony took place at the residence of the brides father, Main St. Stouffville, in the presence of about ninety guests who assembled to help launch the new craft upon the sea of matrimonial life. Rev. L. W. Hill, B. A., of Newmarket, assisted by Rev. Geo. Brown, of Stouffville, conducted the solemnities, and everything passed off without a hitch excepting that which took place when the couple were pronounced one. The bride was supported by her sister, Miss Libbie Woodgate, while a similar service was rendered the bridegroom by his brother, Mr. W. Davey, of Toronto. The bride look charming in a steel garter dress with pasmotric trimmings. The bridesmaid's dress was of satin while the groom and his best man looked their very best and stood the ordeal bravely.

After the ceremony and congratulations the company sat down to a recherche supper and afterward an enjoyable time was spent in the beautiful presents and games the latter being under management of Miss Lillie. It being generally understood that the happy couple were to leave at 10 o'clock express for Toronto, time before that hour, a large of uninvited but entirely guests made their presence known on the street by noises not particularly musical but quite effectual. After a short interview with Mr. Davey the crowd adjourned to, apparently well pleased with the result of the interview.

Shortly before the bridal party were about to leave for the station the Stouffville Cornet Band put in an appearance and entertained the company with a few of their best selections and afterwards marched to the station to see the party off. Hundreds of people notwithstanding the drenching rain which was falling at the time filled the form and cheered them with hoarse a the train pulled out amid the playing of the band and the explosion of fog signals.

After the departure of the train, the band and a large number of the other guests repaired to the residence of Mr. Woodgate where a bountiful supper was in readiness for them, after which the evening was spent in jolly style.
