Mrs. F. Wilson,

LOCAL ITEMS.

OYSTERS Ho!—Oysters fresh and fat now on hand at Hamilton's.

COMMUNION.—Next Sunday morning communion services will be conducted in the Anglican church here by the Incumbent Rev. A. Osborne.

MONEY TO LOAN at 5% per cent. No commission. Fred W. Hill, Barrister, Stouffville.

WANTED.—Two good, smart boys, to learn the machinist and wood-working trades, apply to A. Fleury and Sons, Stouffville.

A number of houses for sale, the choice of ten or twelve good places, at reasonable prices. Terms to suit purchaser, apply to R. J. Daley.

Parties visiting "Our Fair" next week, will do well to call at D. Stouffer & Co's Boot and Shoe Store, and see the immense stock they carry. Inspection and comparison invited.

FAIR.—Everybody is expected to attend Stouffville Fair on Monday and Tuesday of next week. Entries close on Saturday, 28th inst. Great attractions and good premiums, Foot-ball match and Tag-of War on Monday.

MONEY.—To Loan on farm or town property. Lowest rates of interest. Mortgages bought or money supplied to pay off old mortgages, apply to R. J. Daley, Stouffville.

FARMS FOR SALE.—R. J. Daley has fifteen good farms for sale in the vicinity of the growing town of Stouffville. Prices reasonable and terms favorable.

ACCIDENT.—George McKuen, the ten-year-old son of Mr. John McKuen, of the 8th Con. of Whitechurch, broke his leg at the Bloomington school on Thursday. He was amusing himself on a teeter when the board broke with the above result.

Spofford wants all the people who come to Stouffville's Big Fair to call at his store and just look through his immense stock of new goods.

TEACHERS' ASSOCIATION.—The next regular meeting of the South York Teachers' Association will be held at West Toronto on Oct. 31st and Nov. 1st. These meetings afford an excellent opportunity for the fraternity to have a hand shake and compare notes on the divers difficulties of the school room.

FARM FOR SALE.—100 acres, Tp. Whitechurch, within 3 miles of Stouffville. First-class property at a bargain, apply to U. C. HAMILTON, Miller & Co's Bank.

CONCERT.—The Bell-ringers' concert on Friday evening was not very well attended. Those who had not seen the show before were pleased with the fun. The only new features of the performances were the tricks in parlor magic, which were exceedingly clever.

Fred Spofford has sold out his Toronto Dry Goods Store to Mr. T. S. Lobb, of East Toronto, and intends devoting more time in his Stouffville Store, where he has worked up such a Big Trade in a short time.

STOLEN.—A watermelon mysteriously disappeared from the front of Hamilton's store on Saturday night. Mr. H. does not expect to have it brought back, but the parties who took it, being known and not living very far away, might call and testify to the good quality of "watermelon."

FAIR! FAIR! FAIR!—Spofford has a little fair of his own all the time in his Great Bargain House. But he intends having a Big Fair during our great Stouffville Fair. Come all and see what he is doing.

NOT BAD.—Messrs. R. Rowan and J. Urquhart went up to Sutton on Tuesday night. Sutton Fair was on Wednesday. These sports didn't go to the fair but went fishing instead. They are said to have caught six bass, and lost two others (the largest of course) on account of a hook being no good. They returned on the special train Wednesday evening. They brought the fish home.

A LOST OPPORTUNITY.—It seems a pity that none of the churches or societies availed themselves of the good opportunity to make some money, by giving an entertainment on the last night of the fair. A little further on in the season there will be more shows than people to attend them.

ITEMS.—If any reader of our local columns feels disappointed at the omission of the names of their visiting friends they can prevent the recurrence of the same by leaving a little note at the office stating what they want inserted and thus please themselves and do us a good turn. Such items either personal or local are welcome.

PROBS AT THE FAIR.—The good people of Stouffville and vicinity viewed with equanimity the unpleasant weather of last week, thinking that Old Probs had, at last, recognised the importance of the Stouffville exhibition and was having his bad spell a little bit earlier, so that he could show up with a smiling face on both days of our Fair.

ON THE BRIDGE.—The youths who congregate on the bridge over the creek, and make it uncomfortable for passers-by will no doubt soon find the atmosphere too cool for their business. Ladies passing are often alarmed at the size of the gang they have to pass through and even men are nervous of running the gauntlet of a dozen or more boys.

CONCERT.—Elsewhere on this page there is a paragraph calling attention to the oversight in not having an entertainment of some kind on the last night of our Fair. The Stouffville Baseball Club will remedy this defect by giving a concert on that night. It is only necessary to say that JIM FAX, the clever comic vocalist of Toronto will be present and will be assisted by some of the best local talent. Look out for programmes on Fair day, and talk about it to your friends.

STREET LAMPS.—Away back in the dim ages of the past there was a petition circulated, and signed by every one to whom it was presented, asking for lamps along Main St. A committee was appointed to examine into the cost and the lamps have not come yet. A disregard of petitions which were left to "blue mould in the pigeon-holes" was the cause of the North West Rebellion. Let our village council look out. Some wanderer who happens to be out after 8 p.m. may wander off into the country and not know the difference.

THE WORLD WAGS ON.—At this time of the year, it is no uncommon thing to see a traction engine slowly steaming its way along our quiet country roads. To one who meets it for the first time, the effect is somewhat uncanny. It looks wonderful to see this ponderous mass turning corners, and even completely turning around like an ordinary waggon, seemingly under the perfect control of its one manager. No doubt there are many living at the present day who will see not only loaded waggons, but light buggies bowling along the highways with electricity as their motive power.

THE BRIDGE.—Attention was called last week to the great need there is for sidewalk union between Daley's Hall and Mr. M. Flint's. The reason urged was a strong one, namely, the unsightliness of the street. But there is a stronger reason yet. The opposite side, generally known as the bridge, has always been on fine evenings a favorite spot for tired youths to rest. It must be exceedingly trying to the sensitive feelings of these weary ones to be gazed boldly at by every passer by. Now it seems only right to leave these citizens undisturbed since they congregate here in such numbers. Unite the sidewalks and this is done, for then pedestrians, instead of passing and peering at their tired friends, will be considerate enough to use the south walk and view from a distance.

VISITORS.—If you intend taking in our fair, and of course you do, you will be made welcome at the TRIBUNE office either day. If you happen to owe us, it will be a good chance to get a receipt in full. Come to the fair by all means and call on us if you can. If you are not already a subscriber the TRIBUNE will be sent to your address till the end of 1890 for One Dollar.

GOSPEL TEMPERANCE.—The last meeting of the above society was held in Daley's Hall on Tuesday evening last. The President, D. Stouffer occupied the chair. Rev. Messrs. Perey, and Geo. Brown, of Stouffville, and Millard, of Uxbridge, occupied seats on the platform. The last named gentlemen made the address of the evening, which was listened to with close attention by the large-assembly present and which abounded with many telling arguments against the liquor traffic. Mr. and Mrs. Millard rendered three duets in excellent taste and with good effect. Other features of the programme were a recitation by Miss Clara Monro, a song by Mr. De Vannoy and an original reading by Miss Brand of Pennsylvania, the last a poem of undoubted merit composed by the reader. The Band were present and acquitted themselves well as they always do. A number signed the pledge at the close of the programme. The next meeting will be held in a month.
