LOCAL ITEMS

See Spofford's Mantle Cloths.

MONEY TO LOAN at 5 1/2 per cent. No commission. Fred W. Hill, Barrister, Stouffville.

THE WORLD.—The Toronto daily World and the TRIBUNE will be sent to any address for a year for $2.50. Both papers for less than the price of one.

HUNTING PARTY.—Messrs. Joas Boyer, J. Bartholomew and a number of other gentlemen left on Monday past for the North to hunt the deer. We have no objection to sampling some of the venison that they are sure to bring back with them.

Spofford says he has only a dozen of those fine Black Cashmere Shawls with fine silk fringe at $2.25 left worth $4.75 each.

MAGIC LANTERN.—The attendance at the show on Saturday night was very small. The boys who were present say they had a good time and those who contributed to the collection which was substituted for an admission fee in order to secure an audience by they received the worth of their money. The small bills announcing the air were almost too penurious in the matter of ink to be readable.

Look at Spofford's Overcoats, $59 all sizes, worth $10.00 each. Suits at $6.75 worth $12.00. Now is the chance boys. They are going. Call in and look at them for yours.

BENEFIT CONCERT.—The concert at the Hall on Monday evening for Mr. F. W. Riley's benefit was not very large attended, which fact is to be attributed to the number of other meetings held on the same night. However, the Band was out and discoursed sweet music and a very pleasant program was rendered, consisting of some mouth-organ solos, club-swinging and the exercises were presided over by Mr. Fred Miller.

FARM FOR SALE.—100 acres, Whitechurch, within 8 miles of Stouffville. First-class property at a bargain. apply to U. C. HAMILTON, Miller Co's Bank.

THE CANADIAN QUEEN.—This elegant and elegant magazine is sure to please every Canadian woman. It is devoted to Fashion, Art, Fancy Work, Flower Toilet, Home Decoration, and Household Matters. It is handsomely illustrated, and is equal to any of the priced English and American publications. It should be in every cultivated home. To introduce it, the publishers offer to send it three months on trial for only 25c. Address Canadian Queen, Toronto, Ont.

Spofford is making things lively in Stouffville, this fall. By thing goes with Spofford, yes, and low prices too.

MONUMENT.—A very handsome granite monument standing about five feet high, to be placed in the Baptist Cemetery on the 9th Con. Markham erected to the memory of Elijah M. is the work of Mr. C. Wideman. It is a very creditable piece of workmanship. It is said that the stone placed in the Bloomington cemetery in memory of Richard Knill has been removed as it is not satisfactory, and Mr. W. man will replace it with one that prove satisfactory to all concerned.

THE PULPITS.—Rev. Mr. Smith, Newmarket, conducted the services at the Congregational church on Sunday evening by Mr. D. Macdonald of Ontario. The church was crowded on both occasions. Next Sunday Missionary sermons will be preached in Methodist church in the morning. Rev. Dr. Shaw, in the evening by Rev. Mr. Fawcett. Dr. Shaw will address the Sunday School in the afternoon on Monday evening the Missionary meeting will be held, to be addressed by Rev. Messrs. Rankin and Robert fairs being about all over, now a study of the list of prize winners shows that our town and vicinity captured its quota of prizes. Among the winners are Nelson Connor's General Brock at Uxbridge and Markham, Julius Bruels twenty-one firsts at Toronto and several at Markham, Uxbridge, and Goodwood on grain, butter and lady's work. Thos. Casely at Markham and Goodwood, A. Fleury & Son's at Markham, Woburn, Port Perry and Goodwood on turnip slicer, Graham Bros. of Claremont, won prizes whenever they showed with their splendid stable of famous Clydesdales.

L. & D. C.—These are the initial letters of the name of a society finally organized on Monday evening last by the adoption of a constitution. The Stouffville Literary and Debating Club will hold its regular meetings every alternate Thursday evening, until the interest increases so that weekly meetings will become necessary. The next one will be held on Friday evening (to-night) in Sangster's office, when officers will be elected for eight weeks. All who have signified their intention of becoming members are requested to be present and take part in the inaugural proceedings and all others who wish to participate in the benefits of the club are invited to attend.

FARMERS' CLUB.—The last regular meeting of the Farmers' Club was held in Daley's Hall on Friday evening last. The attendance was not so large as might have been expected from the importance of the subject to be discussed. The meeting was called to order by the president J. Jamieson, who at once introduced Mr. R. J. Daley to speak on the desirability of establishing a canning factory here. He entered into the pros and cons of the scheme, giving very lucid and forcible reasons for thinking such an industry would prove a success. In connection with this the cultivation of small fruits was discussed, the proceedings being taken part in by Messrs. S. Stouffer, D. McMurchy, J. J. Brown, F. H. Sangster and others.

ARRESTED.—Ballantrae was the scene of considerable excitement on Wednesday of this week, when a force of County Constables and their deputies swooped down upon the fair village. Latest advices conveyed to us the information that H. Staley and Aaron Robins have fallen into the clutches of the officers of the law, whilst three or four others are the present subjects of the public's most earnest desire. The captured are to be conveyed to Newmarket there to stand their preliminary examination upon the charges of larceny and having stolen goods in their possession knowing them to be stolen. Some are charged with one offence some with another. The goods referred to are two swarms of bees and a quantity of honey stolen from Mr. S. Hall, of Pine Orchard.

GOODWOOD FAIR.—The good people of Goodwood were about the only ones in this part of the country who were favored with anything like decent weather for their fall fair, but the crowd which was necessary to make a success was conspicuous by its absence. Stouffville was well represented as was also Uxbridge. The exhibit in the building was very good although the number of entries was not very large. D. Forsyth was on hand with the New Raymond sewing machine, Fleming with a Dominion Organ, and among other exhibits was to be seen adorned with a red ticket a suit of clothes made by our own Cooper. Tied at intervals along the fence were numerous cattle, prominent among which was a herd of Jerseys shown by McGillivray of Uxbridge. Sheep, swine and poultry galore were there in the pink of condition. A Fleury & Son's straw-cutter and turnip-slicer and H. Oliver with his plows etc. from Sylvester Bros. were on hand, and Wm. Todd, of Goodwood, made a fine display of waggons, buggies, and cutters. The most attractive feature of the earlier part of the day was doubtless Bill Hebson, the nut-vendor and joke-cracker, looking just the same as he did fifteen years ago. A patriarchal old chap with a foreign cast of countenance and a pair of fortune-telling birds was making a few dimes, to the great discomfort of everyone's ears, by selling most horrible discordant whistles. A list of the prize winner has been secured and will be found on another page.

PERSONALS.

Mr. H. Somerville, of Uxbridge, was in town on Wednesday.

Mr. Thos. Hagerman, of Richmond Hill, was in town on Thursday.

Rev. and Mrs. J. Unsworth returned from Michigan on Tuesday evening last.

Mr. and Mrs. D. P. Crosby, of Burlington, were the guests of Mr. A. Fleury last week.

Miss Sarah M. Lepard, of Sharon, has returned home from visiting at Robert Chappell's.

Mr. S. C. Fleury started on Saturday on a trip to Bracebridge and other points in Muskoka.

We are all pleased to see Johnnie Jerman on the streets again. He has been sick for some time.

Mr. Jas. Blackie is still very sick. His numerous friends trust that they will see him around as usual before long.

EAST END ECHOES.

TERRIBLE ENCOUNTER BETWEEN TWO ROUGHS AT THE EAST END.

Two of the most notorious roughest in this part of the country, met here to settle an "old grudge." This "old grudge" can hardly ever be explained in English. It always vanishes in thin air when an attempt is made to formulate the "old thing" in words. So on the occasion referred to, nothing definite could be urged as the original cause of the "bad blood." In fact the two were simply "spoiling for a fight." To describe the disgraceful scene in detail would be an insult to the readers of the Tribune, suffice it to say that the air was so thick with profanity that at one time it was thought that it would be necessary to call out the local fire brigade. Some will be disappointed to know that the above took place over twenty-five years ago.

The East End of to-day does not tolerate such scenes. In fact this part of the town has for some years past been a model place, in which to reside. There was a time, in the annals of Stouffville when the ultra-fashionable of the West End considered the East below par. They heartily despised it, yet, strangely enough, always seemed to think it a good place to bury their dead. East-enders pride themselves on the fact that, they at present, have as residents five of the clergy, several wealthy retired gentlemen, others of culture and standing in the community. Their West End friends will no doubt excuse this little outburst, and they of the E. E. will promise to subside and assume their wonted attitude of humility in the future.

Two couples who have recently entered the matrimonial ranks, were favored with a visit from a gang of charivariers, on Saturday night last. The financial result is unknown, but in the matter of racket the affair was a great success, the usual cow bell, tin pan, etc., supplemented by a most "overgrown kazoo," which, it is doubt the first prize of a West-end.

My remarks with regard to the necessity for a humane society seem to find considerable favor among the readers of the TRIBUNE and it is hoped will produce the desired effect.
