TO OUR SUBSCRIBERS.

The Special Announcement which appeared in our columns some time since, announcing a special arrangement with B. J. Kendall Co., of Enosburgh Falls, Vt., publishers of "A Treatise on the Horse and his Diseases," whereby our subscribers were enabled to obtain a copy of that valuable work free by sending their address to B. J. KENDALL CO. (and enclosing a two-cent stamp for mailing same) is renewed for a limited period. We trust all will avail themselves of the opportunity of obtaining this valuable work. To every lover of the Horse it is indispensable, as it treats in a simple manner, all the diseases which afflict this noble animal. Its phenomenal sale throughout the United States and Canada, make it standard authority. Mention this paper when sending for the "Treatise."

In an article on "Building Associations" in the December Lippincott's, Thomas Gaffney describes the benefits that accrue to the members of these institutions, tells how to form and run associations, and points out their influence for good upon the nation at large. "Fiddler Rake's Fiddle" is a very entertaining sketch of Country life in Virginia, by Rosewell Page. Charles Morris contributes an article entitled "The Power of the Future," in which he tells of the wonderful solar motor, the storage of electricity, and other methods of utilizing power which may come into play in the future.
