A successful business man, almost universally spoken of as lucky, says, "What's more luck is rising at six o'clock every morning; spending no more than half your income, running your own business; trusting to your own resources; keeping your own confidence; making your opportunity; and leaving nothing worth doing to chance."

With the exception of one county the county of Essex has sent more blind children to the Ontario Institute for the Blind at Bradford since its opening in 1872, than any other county in the province, and there is no explanation for it. Thirty-one all told is the number. The County of York has sent 24 and the city of Toronto ninety-three.

Having attached the freezer to a gasoline engine, we are prepared to make ice cream wholesale, from 3 to 50 gallons, on short notice. J. E. WILKINS, Stouffville.

Ever since the first of May there have been one or two constables on all-night duty in Newmarket and not a night has passed but at least one man was put in the "cooler" for loitering on the streets, and as many as six have been locked up in one night. The greatest trouble was to make foreigners understand why they were locked up. They are let go next morning, on promising to get out of town, but any that are taken the second time are sent down as vagrants.

The closing meeting of the York County Council on Saturday last was productive of some drastic legislation. Ever since the refusal of the legislature to enact some laws governing the speed of automobiles and imposing safeguards which the county fathers deemed necessary, it has been felt that the remedy, if any, must be of local origin. To this end Councillor Lundy of Newmarket, seconded by Councillor McCallum of King, on Saturday, with the unanimous endorsement of council, placed on the county statutes a bylaw giving to county constables enlarged powers in this connection. A double incentive is furnished for the arrest of reckless automobilists by the fact that a reward of $25 will be given the conviction of every offender transgressing the limit allowed by law. The report of the finance committee was adopted as was that of the educational committee. On motion of Councillors Lundy and Johnson the action of the legislative committee in urging the passage of an act looking toward the entrance of the Toronto and York Radial Line into the city on reasonable terms, was unanimously endorsed. Messrs. Rogers and Powell introduced a motion inuring the clerks to forward a copy of clause 6 of the county property committee to the select committee on telephones at Ottawa. A bylaw to borrow the sum of $20,000 for current expense was introduced and carried through. The thanks of the community of Guelph were tendered to Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Lott for their trip to Niagara Falls. The Warden for his unselfish interest in the welfare of the town will meet again on June 21st.

The congregation of the Baptist church will hold services in their own church building on Sabbath next. Services of a special nature will be conducted by the Pastor, who will also be present in the afternoon and address the children. The interior of the church has been completely renovated and presents a very inviting appearance. A new baptistry has been put in and two robes rooms added, as well as new pulpit and choir platforms. The seats have been re-covered and newly grained. New electric fixtures have been installed with ornamental shades, making the church one of the most brilliantly lighted in the village. Further improvements are expected to be completed in the near future. The usual young people's prayer meeting on Monday evenings and the church prayer meeting on Wednesday evenings, will now be held in the church.

PASTOR APPRECIATED.

A very pleasing event took place in the Ringwood Christian Church on Friday last at the conclusion of the service, when their pastor, Rev. B. A. Witherspoon was presented with a set of beautiful harness and a plow and the following address:

Dear Friend and Pastor,

It is the peculiar privilege of a minister of the gospel to come into touch with all the people of the neighbourhood in which he lives, provided he is faithful to his charge and believes that salvation is for all men. He must be true to duty pass none by. His master before him did not, nor must he.

Since you come into our midst you have exemplified this essential feature of Christianity, by making your self friendly with all, none has been passed by as beneath your notice or as unimportant to the Kingdom of God, the interests of which you are trying to advance. Everywhere you have gone among us, you have shown the same kindly interest, sharing with all the same good motives and desire to help. The work in which you are engaged in the noblest world given unto man, that of saving souls, such a work is the necessary work of every community, men may gain success in this life and may acquire riches and position, but the most successful life from the standpoint of this world is the largest failure if the one thing needful is left out. So in your endeavor to men to the highest possible amount we wish to show our appreciation of your efforts and ask you to accept this harness and plow as a manifestation of the regard, not only of the membership of the church, but of the community, the members of which have contributed to the same.

We trust that you may long be spared to labor with us, and that the very highest success may attend your labours here and elsewhere.

Signed in behalf of all,

ABRAM GROVE.

Mr. Willoughby, in a few well chosen words, thanked the friends for their kindness.
