BERLIN'S BUTTER SCARCE.

A despatch from Berlin says: The members of the Magistracies in Greater Berlin held a conference on Tuesday over the uniform disturbance of the butter supply and decided to introduce butter cards, similar in their application to bread cards early in the war. The amount of butter to be allowed each person has not yet been determined.

LIVELY BRUSH WITH GERMANS IN EAST AFRICAN CAMPAIGN

Reconnaissance in Force Carried Out Against Salaita Hill to Ascertain Enemy's Position

A despatch from London says: The British official statement issued Thursday night on the East African campaign says:

The general officer commanding the British forces in East Africa states that on the 12th a reconnaissance in force was carried out against Salaita Hill to locate the enemy's position and ascertain his strength. The hill was found to be strongly held, and the main German reserves were ascertained to be in the neighborhood.

"Our casualties amounted to 172, of whom 139 were in the second South African brigade, which had their first experience in bush fighting.

The branch railway has now been carried to Njoro, 2½ miles from Salaita."

WRINKLES ARE A CONFESSION

Advancing years are first realized by the change that becomes noticeable in the complexion. If you pay attention to the first, almost imperceptible, lines, how easy it is to avoid the unsightly wrinkles that surely follow. Wrinkles are a confession to rather Time. The skin must be kept firm and smooth by proper attention and treatment.

"U.S.T." is a skin food and wrinkle chaser. It builds up firm, elastic tissues, removes wrinkles, fills out depressions, prevents dryness of skin caused by excessive winds, and restores to your complexion that fine appearance of freshness and youth.

"U.S.T." is put up in handsome oval bottles, and until the Drug Stores in Canada are completely stocked we are filling small orders. Accept no substitute.

Send 50 cents to-day for trial bottle sufficient for six weeks' use. We pay postage to any address in Canada.

Province, is progressing—the point where one man out of every six between the ages of 18 and 45 have enlisted for foreign service. The figures given out show that for the first fifteen days of February 2,771 had joined the colors. This brings the total number of men raised in this district since the beginning of the war to approximately 47,500.

MONTENEGRINS RISE AGAINST ILL-USAGE

People Goaded Into Revolt by Brutality of Austrian Soldiery.

A despatch from Rome says: The Durazzo correspondent of the Idea Nazionale telegraphs that the Montenegrins in the Vasoyevici, Plavo and Gusinge districts, goaded by the ill-usage of the Austrians, have revolted with such success that the Austrian authorities have been obliged to send to Scutari for reinforcements. The Montenegrins, thanks to arms and munitions, which they had hidden, continue to resist. When they entered the country, the correspondent adds, the Austrians announced that quantities of provisions would arrive immediately, but as soon as the territory was occupied they carried off the little that remained and the population everywhere is dying of hunger, although money is abundant. Austria is seeking to control the movement by hanging all the leaders and the situation appeared serious enough to summon more troops from Matia.

TWO-YEAR SENTENCE FOR A DESERTER

A despatch from Montreal says: Benjamin Coulter, nineteen years of age, who was convicted on Wednesday before Judge Lanctot on charges of having deserted from the 73rd Royal Highlanders, 87th Battalion Grenadier Guards and the 5th Universities Company overseas, was sentenced to St. Vincent de Paul Penitentiary for two years. He is married.

NEWFOUNDLAND WILL DOUBLE ITS CONTINGENT

Sailors Are Much in Demand for Auxiliary Work.

A despatch from St. John's, Newfoundland says: Plans for a complement of soldiers and sailors in active war service were completed Thursday night. So far 1,200 naval reservists and 2,000 soldiers have been enlisted and sent to England.

The heart is in most human beings a little larger than the fish.

The misguided young man with a salary of $9 a week who marries a girl that cannot cook, hands himself an extra large and juicy lemon.

It may console the self-confessed coward that he is still in a position to admit it.

Mother (after relating pathetic story)—"Now, Reggie, wouldn't you like to give your bunny to that poor little boy you saw to-day who hasn't any father?"—Reggie (clutching rabbit)—"Couldn't we give him father instead?"

British Government About to Commandeer All Distilleries.

A despatch from London says: The Central News says it is able to confirm the report that the Government is about to commandeer all distilleries in the United Kingdom, with as little delay as possible. This step is rendered necessary, it is said, owing to the constantly growing demand for alcohol in connection with the manufacture of high explosives. It is explained the Government, after acquiring the amount of alcohol needed for ammunitions, will hand over the remainder to the trade.
