

DISARM EVERY MAN IN IRELAND IS THE NATIONALIST DEMAND

Lord Derby's Name Mentioned in Connection With Impending Changes in the Government of Ireland.

A despatch from London says: The Nationalists, according to the Daily Mail, will press the Government at an early date to disarm every man in Ireland. The paper adds that the Nationalists are quite willing that they should be disarmed, provided that the Government does likewise with the Ulster volunteers. "The demand," says the Daily Mail, "is likely to raise a difficult issue in Irish politics."

LAST MESSAGE OF TOWNSHEND

Everything Humanly Possible Was Done to Hold Out.

A despatch from London says: In the House of Lords on Thursday Field Marshal Earl Kitchener, the Secretary for War, warmly eulogized General Townshend and the defenders of Kut-el-Amara, and read General Townshend's last despatch, which is as follows:

"We are pleased to know that we have done our duty and recognize that our situation is one of the fortunes of war. We thank you, General Gorringe (commander of the British relief army), and all ranks of the Tigris force, for the great efforts you have made to save us."

Lord Kitchener said he was glad of the opportunity to pay tribute to General Townshend and his troops, "whose dogged determination and splendid courage had earned for them so honorable a record."

FOOD SCARCE IN BELGIUM.

German Officers Fat While Brussels Is Starving.

A despatch from Paris says: "The Brussels population is almost starving that the German officers are fed abundantly," says Le Journal des Debats Brussels correspondent. "Elaborately uniformed, monocled officers stroll the streets and flood the restaurants from noon to late in the evening, where their gastronomic feats are an insult to the misery around. The establishments they prefer commandeer for their benefit thousands of kilos of flour, meat, fruit and vegetables, which causes a yet more abnormal rise in prices for the public. The small bourgeoisie and working classes suffer terribly. Potatoes cannot be bought and meat, butter and fats are far too dear for them. The worst sufferers are women and children, who fill the hospitals, exhausted by privations."

LIGHT YIELD OF STRAW.

There Is Nothing Serious in the Seeding Situation.

A despatch from Guelph says: Prof. Zavitz, head of the Field Husbandry Department at the Ontario Agricultural College, is not of the opinion that anything that could be termed a "serious" situation has yet been created by the wet weather interfering with the seeding operations. "Reports show that there has been little seeding done yet. In the college plots we have not yet put in spring wheat, barley or mixed grains, although a start has been made. In the last twenty years I can remember only one season like this," stated Mr. Zavitz, "and I suppose we can look for similar results this year. We shall probably have a light yield of straw, although there should be an average crop of grain of good quality." Professor Zavitz added that fall wheat, hay and clover were in splendid condition and growing very rapidly.

EXPECT THAT THE WAR WILL END THIS YEAR.

A despatch from London says: Indicating a strong belief that the war is beginning to draw to a close, Lloyd's on Thursday posted new insurance rates, wagging only 1 to 3 that the war will not end before December 31, 1918. "For several weeks the rate of insurance to guarantee against loss if the war is over by the end of the year has been steadily advancing until it is now almost prohibitive."

SOLDIERS SHOT DOWN PEOPLE IN THE STREETS OF BUDAPEST

Thousands of Socialists and Women Paraded Shouting: "Give us Peace! Give us Bread!"

A despatch from London says: Serious rioting took place in Budapest on Sunday, according to a Central News despatch from The Hague. It is said that a thousand Socialists retary for Ireland, following the example of his superior, Augustine Birrell. Sir Robert Chalmers, former Governor of Ceylon, will succeed him temporarily.

Parliamentary representatives associate Lord Derby, the Recruiting Minister, with the impending changes in the government of Ireland.

The Daily Express says that Sir Roger Casement has expressed a wish that Sir Edward Carson defend him. It is not likely that Sir Edward, the leader of loyal Ulster, will accept.

TRY CASEMENT IN A FORTNIGHT

Penalty Likely to be Death—Insanity Theory Not Taken Seriously.

A despatch from London says: An article in The Express of Thursday declares on good authority that the trial of Sir Roger Casement, now imprisoned on the charge of high treason for inciting revolt in Ireland, has been definitely set within the next fortnight. It will be held in London. The article continues to the effect that Sir Roger's fate will be determined by a tribunal consisting of a jury and a Commission of either three or five Judges. Opinion here is practically unanimous that the penalty will be death. The insanity theory is not held seriously.

EXTORTION IN GERMANY.

Rise in Prices of Necessaries of Life Brings Bitter Attack.

A despatch from Berlin says: Eugene Zimmerman, General Director of the Lokai Anzeiger, publishes in his paper a strong attack on "extortionists" in provisions. He declares that they are conducting "the dirtiest business ever done," and criticizes sharply the incomplete measures of the State's organization. Herr Zimmerman's article follows a number of similar attacks in the last few days, in which "the unjustifiable and shocking increased prices of the necessities of life" were pointed out, as well as "the material damage they do to Germans and the false ideas of starvation and of economic weakness they awake abroad."

PLACE PROHIBITION ON ILLINOIS STOCK.

Foot and Mouth Disease Outbreak Necessitates Restrictions.

A despatch from Ottawa says: Following an outbreak of the foot and mouth disease in Illinois the Department of Agriculture has prohibited the importation of cattle, sheep, swine and goats from that state. Horses may be brought in under special permits, and regulations are provided governing imports of animal products and poultry. Healthy cattle from Illinois may be transported through Canada subject to specified conditions as to cars, etc.

HOW THE CROWN PRINCE HATES FRENCH PEOPLE.

A despatch from Paris says: Henri de Regnier, one of the forty immortals of the French Academy, on Wednesday told the following incident as an example of German's hatred for France: "The army of the Crown Prince, fighting around Verdun, recently sent a cradle to the Crown Princess bearing the inscription: 'The wood with which this cradle is made is stained with French blood.'"

TO MOVE CLOCK AHEAD IN GREAT BRITAIN.

A despatch from London says: The Daily Mail learns that the Cabinet has been converted to the proposition of moving the clock ahead in order to "save daylight." The adoption of the measure is considered practically certain and will become a fact on May 13th.

"You are getting very bald, sir," said the barber. "You yourself," retorted the customer, "are not free from a number of defects that I could mention if I cared to become personal."

SIR GEORGE CAVE STRONG AND SANE

GREAT BRITAIN'S NEW SOLICITOR-GENERAL.

He is a Splendid Debater, and Has Been a Tower of Strength to the Unionist Party.

It was once said by Sir John Simon, at the time he was Solicitor-General, that the occupant of that post was really the "office boy of the Government." If that be so, the present Government have an "office boy" of very notable dignity and remarkable ability, as well as of somewhat mature years. For the Rt. Hon. Sir George Cave, Unionist M.P. for the Kingston division of Surrey, is one of the strongest and sanest members of the House of Commons, and one of the very soundest lawyers at the English bar.

BE THANKFUL THINGS DIE.

An Article About the Housefly, the Codfish and the Rotifer.

If everything born in a single hour even were allowed to multiply unchecked by death there would soon be no foothold on all the earth for man. Let us take the rotifer, one of the smallest of created things—so tiny that it can scarcely be seen by the unaided eye. If all the progeny of a single rotifer were allowed to multiply unchecked for a year only its descendants would represent a solid sphere of closely-packed animalcula, millions of times larger than our earth.

He is just sixty years old—sixteen years older than his senior fellow-officer of the Crown, Sir F. E. Smith—and has been in Parliament for ten years only. From the moment he entered the House he made his mark, thus constituting himself a tangible refutation of the generally-held doctrine that neither a middle-aged man nor a man who enters the House with a great reputation gained outside it, has much chance of becoming a first-rate House of Commons success.

Sir George Cave, however, was happy in his opportunities. When he entered Parliament, the Unionist party was at very low ebb, and a man of really great debating gifts, such as he possesses, was bound to come to the fore. Moreover, the subjects which came forward for Parliamentary discussion were such as he was pre-eminently well versed in. He had not been long in the House before the Campbell-Bannerman Government brought in its licensing bill—and what George Cave does not know on the subject of licensing is not worth knowing. He regularly riddled the bill before it met its final end at the hand of the peers, at that time with their veto unimpaired. Subsequently, his speeches in criticism of the famous Lloyd George budget made a deep impression on the House. To-day Sir George Cave is a distinct power in Parliament—a greater power than his official position of Solicitor-General would seem to indicate.

A Great Lawyer.

As Solicitor-General, Sir George Cave draws a salary of $30,000 a year, with the additional emolument of something like $45,000 a year in fees. But he probably made a financial sacrifice when he accepted office—even an office carrying with it remuneration so generous a scale. For he was doing literally an enormous business at the Chancery Bar, and since 1913 had been what is called a "special," which term has a world of significance about it as regards the magnitude of the fees which the lucky "special" receives. In fact, he swept all before him at the bar just as he had done at Oxford, and he is recognized as perhaps the most erudite and profound lawyer in the present House of Commons.

Sir George Cave is an admirable speaker, concise, cogent, and convincing, and, though a counsel very "learned in the law," he does not bring to Parliament the style of the law courts, as do all too many of his "hon. and learned friends" on the benches around him—you never seem to hear the rustling of his silk gown, as it were, when he is up addressing the Speaker.

He takes a very prominent part in the life of the County of Surrey, at Richmond, in which county is situated his delightful country seat, humorously named "Wardrobe Court." He has been a county councillor and county alderman for Surrey, as well as chairman of the Surrey Quarter Sessions. He is also a magistrate for that county, and is Recorder of Guildford which is its capital. He has edited two of the most widely-read legal treatises "Sweet's Conveyancing" and "Gale on Easements." He is a fine horseman, a good oar, a devotee of golf, and a man of considerable social gifts, with a fund of dry humor.

The Solicitor-General is also Attorney-General to the Prince of Wales, to which office he was appointed a couple of years ago when Sir C. A. Cripps, its then occupant, was raised to the peerage as Lord Parmoor. In this capacity his duty is to give legal advice as required in connection with the Prince's Duchy of Cornwall, and, in fact, to advise his royal client whenever legal advice is necessary, and, if required, to appear for him in court in any litigation matter. The duties of this office are not very onerous, nor does it bring much financial gird to the mill. But it confers a good deal of social prestige on its holder.
