

KEY TO IMPORTANT PASSES CAPTURED BY THE ITALIANS

Nearly Entire Austrian Garrison Surrendered, It Having Been Demoralized by the Suddenness of the Attack.

A despatch from Milan, Italy, says: Since July 20 operations have been conducted by the Italians in the upper San Pellegrino valley with considerable success. One detachment captured the strong position of Cavallazze, a key to the two passes of Rollo and Col Briccon. The Austrians, though they held well defended positions, were completely demoralized by the sudden attack, and after a short resistance nearly the entire garrison surrendered. Four hundred prisoners, two guns, several machine guns and considerable material were captured. The Italians have since pushed their advantage still further, and have occupied Cima Stradone, thus forming a serious menace to the Austrian position on the Dolomites road. The points of advantage gained by the Italians give them command of the San Pellegrino and Travignola valleys.

A despatch from London says: Lord Derby, Under-Secretary of War, who recently visited the British front on Wednesday gave the International News Service his impression of the war being done there by the British army: "I never saw such absolute confidence, not only among the officers, but all the grades from the generals down. The spirit is absolutely magnificent. Men who, fifteen months ago, were in counting houses, are today the finest soldiers imaginable. "After all, you cannot beat a volunteer army, where such spirit and confidence exists, for remember, I should say at least 93 per cent of the army are volunteers, while the remainder really only wanted their minds made up for them."

WILL BE NO REST FOR THE GERMANS

Spirit of Men at Front is Perfect, Says Under-Secretary of War.

A despatch from London says: Lord Derby, Under-Secretary of War, who recently visited the British front on Wednesday gave the International News Service his impression of the war being done there by the British army: "I never saw such absolute confidence, not only among the officers, but all the grades from the generals down. The spirit is absolutely magnificent. Men who, fifteen months ago, were in counting houses, are today the finest soldiers imaginable. "After all, you cannot beat a volunteer army, where such spirit and confidence exists, for remember, I should say at least 93 per cent of the army are volunteers, while the remainder really only wanted their minds made up for them."

NEW GERMAN WAR HORROR

Proposed That Prisoners Be Taught Hun Language.

In a leading article in the "Vossische Zeitung" we have further information regarding the remarkable project for increasing the power and influence of Germany throughout the world, by teaching the German language to the hundreds of thousands of war prisoners scattered throughout the German Empire. The promoters of the scheme see in it a unique opportunity of spreading abroad what they understand by "Deutschtum," and think that war prisoners inducted into the mysteries of the language will be one and all apostles in the great cause. It does not occur to them that to treat these prisoners with humanity, to feed them properly, to shelter them from the loathsome mockery and insults to which they are daily exposed might be a surer way of securing their esteem and advocacy for the future.

BRITAIN IS MAKING HER OWN MUNITIONS.

Factories to Make One Class of Explosives in Vast Quantities.

A despatch from London says: During a discursive debate on the questions of the war in the House of Commons on Wednesday night, Dr. Christopher Addison, Parliamentary Secretary of Munitions, in replying to a question said that the Department of Munitions was endeavoring to reduce the contracts for munitions in the United States by increasing the output here. In one particular class of explosives, he said the department had undertaken the construction and equipment of factories to provide these explosives on an unheard of scale.

KING PLANS VISIT TO CANADA.

Expects to Make Trip With Queen as Soon as War Permits.

The appointment of the Duke of Devonshire as Governor-General of Canada may be regarded as a forerunner of the King's determination to make a tour of Canada with the Queen as soon after the war as possible, according to the London correspondent of the Manchester Guardian.

GERMANS EXECUTE BELGIANS ON A BARBAROUS PRETEXT.

Reference is made to plans by the King to visit Canada during the Duke of Connaught's tenure of office, the assertion being made that they were cut short by the outbreak of the war.

The Duchess of Devonshire is not only Mistress of the Robes of the Queen but is one of her closest friends. She was, before her marriage, Lady Evelyn Mary Fitzmaurice, daughter of Lord Lansdowne. She is a great social favorite and one of London's most popular hostesses. Both she and the Duke have visited more than once.

Does a Good Job. "They say that lightning never strikes twice in the same place." "Well, it doesn't need to."

Previous to 1885 ales and beers were sold on the Canadian National Exhibition grounds. The sale was abolished at an annual loss in both rentals of $2,000, quite a sum in the early days of the big Fair to pay for a principle.
