Only STANDARD HOTELS can sell Soft Drinks

Restaurant proprietors will most likely find themselves guilty of the offence of illegally selling two and a half per cent beer, soft drinks, cigars and cigarettes.

According to the wording of section 146, sub-section 6 of the new Ontario Temperance Act, none but Standard hotels are permitted to traffic in the above mentioned articles.

Sub-section 5 of the Act provides that hotels with Standard licenses shall be entitled to sell all non-intoxicating drinks and beverages, as well as cigars and cigarettes. But sub-section 6 states that "the keeper of any hotel, inn or house of public entertainment not licensed as a Standard hotel, shall not sell or traffic in any of the articles mentioned in the preceding sub-section, and any such keeper who violates this section shall be guilty of an offence under this Act, and shall on conviction be liable to a penalty not exceeding $10 and costs."

TAXING THE TRAPPERS

New regulations have been announced by the Provincial Game Department and trappers and hunters are not delighted with them. They say a trapper must pay a license of $5 and a dealer only $2, and that there are about fifty trappers to one dealer, therefore it looks like a revenue producing scheme rather than putting the tax on the man who handles most goods. - Journal.
