BLOOMINGTON

Mr. Jos. Grose has purchased a new Ford car.

Miss McQuain has returned home again.

Seeding is in full swing in this vicinity.

Miss Elsie Raymer has returned home after spending a few weeks at Robert Brown's.

Quite a number were disappointed on Sunday as Mrs. Bristow was not able to be present on account of scarlet fever in the home. We wish them a speedy recovery.

RINGWOOD

Miss Ada Barkey is home after spending a few weeks in Toronto.

Owing to the illness of our Pastor, Rev. Mrs. Bristow, she was unable to attend the song service here on Sunday evening, last but the pulpit was ably occupied by Rev. T. H. Mitchell of Toronto whom we were fortunate in securing for that evening.

Mr. Louis Brownsberger is home for the summer.

A number from here attended Tuesday evening the concert at Melville Church last night. Miss Addie Pipher is home after spending the winter at Guelph.
