Unveiling of the Honor Roll

In the presence of a large assemblage of citizens, Reeve Jas. H. Ratcliff unveiled the Honor Roll of the Stouffville boys who have given their lives for their country, in the Auditorium, on Sunday afternoon.

In opening his address, Mr. Ratcliff complimented those interested in the service on the splendid audience, adding that this more than formal words, was a testimony of the sincerity of the tribute being paid to the heroes who had made the supreme sacrifice. These, he said, are days of new experiences. It was a new experience when we met to bid farewell to our boys who had donned the military uniform. It was a new experience when we met to welcome back the heroes, incapacitated by wounds received on the field of battle, and now it was a sad, new experience to gather together to consider the sacrifice we have made on the altar of liberty, justice and righteousness. Continuing he said that such great events were happening that he feared we were not seized with the importance of many of them. The ones that we have grieved were the causes that led up to the awful conditions of war and its resultant wall of sorrow and anguish for the millions of the victims that have been gained and instances the breaking of the bonds and fetters of the millions of Russia and the reawakening of the great Republic to the south of us from the race for gold and material things to a sense of the principles of liberty, justice and freedom of the human family, of the attitude of brave Belgium and bleeding France still steadfast and determined to pay the full price for the cause of liberty of the magnificent spectacle of the Grand Old Empire standing for the principles at stake, and we look forward to other harvests that would be gleaned with the victory that was coming when the scales would fall, and are, he believed, falling from the eyes of the German people who had been wrongfully educated along the path of the unholy ambition of the Kaiser and his war lords. In view of what had been attained and what was yet to be attained, was the price he asked, too great. "We think not, and look forward to the day, not far distant when each man will look upon the other, not as Russian, French or Turk, but as members of the great human family. Let us put our confidence not in numbers but in the grace of God and the righteousness of our cause. It is such a glorious cause as that, that these brave brothers of ours have given their lives and I ask you to rise and do honour to their memory while I unveil this our Honor Roll while we sing

"When we asunder part,
It gives us inward pain,
But we shall still be joined in heart And hope to meet again."
The Honor Roll contains the photographs, neatly mounted and framed, of the Stouffville boys who have given their lives for their country. It is a very suitable reminder of their great sacrifice, and it will be hung in the Council Chambers. It bears the appropriate inscription, "Greater love hath no man than this that a man lay down his life for his friend." The work both of preparing the Honor Roll and making arrangements for the unveiling ceremony was conceived and carried out by the Women's Patriotic League to whom much credit is due. The League sat in a body at the gathering while the mourners occupied the two front rows of seats. On the platform were seated the members of the Council, the resident ministers and Mr. W. B. Sanders, of the Military

NO WHITE BREAD IN EUROPE

Canada and the United States probably will be able to provide for the Allies' requirements of cereals other than wheat, during the next twelve months.

The Allied peoples themselves have been economizing with wheat and wheat flour. As Lord North-cliff said in Montreal, "There is no such thing as white bread in the old country from the King's table downwards." Other cereals are being used but they cannot be used alone for bread. The Allies must produce wheat flour to make their war bread now in universal use in European countries. Except in Italy where the people normally consume much corn, there are few corn mills in Europe. Cornmeal, not being a durable commodity, cannot be shipped across the ocean in great quantities.

The Allies must have a wheat flour basis for their war loaf. Unless the people of Canada and the United States are willing to substitute other cereals for part of the wheat flour, which they normally consume, they will be denying even war bread to many thousands of people. Substitution of at least one pound of other cereals for one pound of flour weekly, per person, would save a very large quantity of wheat for export.
It would still be far short of meeting the normal consumption requirements of the Allies but it would save the situation.

Late S. B. Hoover

By the death of Samuel B. Hoover who passed away on Thursday morning the 11th inst., in his 78th year, Markham township loses one of its pioneer residents and this community one of its most respected citizens.
The deceased had been in failing health for some time and the end was not unexpected. He had lived on the farm on which he was born all of his life being a son of the late Christian Hoover who in the early days came from Pennsylvania and settled on the farm when this part of the country was practically a forest. A man of sterling qualities he was held in high esteem by a very wide circle of friends and relatives.
In 1871 he married Susannah daughter of the late Henry Wideman, of Markham and besides the widow, a family of seven survive, Louis W. and Anthony on the old homestead; Mrs. P. J. Lott, of Montreal; Mrs.
W. J. Lehman, of Almira; Mrs.
Harry Spang and Mrs. D. L. Stouffer of Ringwood, and Miss Bertha at home.

The deceased was an adherent of the Mennonite Church.
The funeral which was held on Saturday afternoon to Wideman's Cemetery, where service and interment took place, was very largely attended by friends and relatives.
The service was conducted by the Rev. Mr. Bricker assisted by Rev.
Mr. Burkholder. The sympathy of the community goes out to the sorrowing ones in their sad bereavement.

Wage-Earners

With the revival of industrial activity throughout the factories of Canada, resulting in the disbursement of large sums in wages, it behooves each wage-earner to provide against future unemployment or unforeseen contingencies. YOU can do this by opening a savings account with this Bank and systematically saving a portion of your income.

North York Teacher's Meeting

The North York Teachers' Institute met on Thursday and Friday October 11 and 12. Thursday being a holiday nearly all the teachers of the inspectors were present. The topic of the first session was "The Teaching of Elementary Geography" by Mrs. J. Stubbs, B. A. of North Toronto. It was followed by an interesting discussion.
The second session was opened by Miss Robinson, Kewick. The session was closed by some good questions by the inspectors.
The third session was opened on Friday morning the subject being "Agriculture in Schools" by Dr.
Dandino, which was followed by a short talk on parsing by Mr. Stubbs.
The report of Agricultural work in schools was very favorable. Owing to the absence of Mr. Hisey, formerly of Aurora, the afternoon session was short. The Convention was a success from every standpoint except punctuality.

BLOOMINGTON

Too late for last week.
Quite a number from here attended Markham Fair last Friday.

Toronto spent the holidays at Mr. W.
H. Jones.
Miss Wilson, of Toronto, is visiting Mr. and Mrs. R. N. Fairles.
Miss Rita Fairles, of Toronto was home for a couple of days.
Mr. W. J. Simpson and lady friend of Toronto, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Story on Sunday.
Miss Barnes, of Gormley, spent the holidays at her home here.
Mr. and Mrs. Beech, of Bethesda, spent Sunday at the home of her father, Mr. Sage.
Miss Silversides, of Toronto, visited her aunt, Mrs. Jarvis Story.

War Duties Made Easier

It is easier to perform a patriotic duty when the duty is universally recognized and performed. This is the opinion of many keen observers who have recently come in contact with war-time life in Great Britain and France.

A celebrated Canadian business man whose services have been availed of several times in recent years by the British Government said recently: "I was greatly impressed both in France and Great Britain with the cheerful endurance of conditions such as we Canadians will not have to live under to the end of the war. It seemed to me that the public mind had become made up and set with the concentrated will power of millions of people, so that war duties did not produce the reactions one might have expected from a naturally peace-loving people."
To explain the popular war service which, in Great Britain and France, has astonished the world, this gentleman quotes the familiar phrase, "Everybody's doing it."
