The Stouffville boys at the Front will appreciate their boxes from the Janey Canucks all the more knowing that these are the result of hard work on the part of these industrious young ladies. Baling paper was "no cinch" as they found out but they have stuck to it. Now they have contracted with Mr. Oscar Baker to pull an acre of carrots. This means soiled hands and sore backs but the Janey's are staying with the work. A number of them have been working this week and they expect to complete the contract by Saturday. Hurrah for the Janey Canucks! Tiger.

KESTER-MINNIION
A quiet but prettily wedding was celebrated at Magrath on Tuesday at high noon, when Miss Kathleen Minnion was united in marriage to Mr. W. B. Kester, of Lethbridge Alberta. Both the contracting parties are well known and popular in the south country. The ceremony took place at the home of the bride's parents and was performed by Rev. Mr. Ingles. The bride looked very charming in a purple suit with hat to match. She was attended by her sister, Mrs. Sangster, and the groomsmen was Mr. George Minnion, brother of the bride. A dinner was served after the ceremony to guests from Lethbridge and Magrath. There were many beautiful presents. The young couple will reside in Lethbridge where Mr. Kester is in business.
