ONE MORE CHANCE
Again we have secured a line of Valencia Raisins—a fine sample which will sell at 10c per pound by the box. Five days should clean up the lot of about 1 1/2 tons, so act quickly.
Ratcliff & Co.

Miss L. E. Longfield has resigned her position on our public school staff and has been engaged as teacher of the third class division of Todmorden public school which has 12 teachers on the staff. We congratulate Miss Longfield. It will be a great loss to Stouffville to lose such an efficient teacher.

On Friday evening over sixty members of Richardson and surrounding Lodges met together on the occasion of the official visit of the D.D.G.M., W. S. Ormiston. After the Lodge had met the brethren repaired to the Liberal Club Hall and enjoyed a light lunch served by the ladies, after which a number of interesting toasts were proposed. Miss Webster, Elocutionist, and Mr. Prestwich, of Toronto entertained very pleasantly. During the evening the following officers were elected for the ensuing year:
