ASSISTANCE APPRECIATED

The Janey Canucks were delighted with their splendid attendance at their drama on Friday night. It is gratifying to know that the public takes such an interest in the noble work which the girls of Stouffville are endeavouring to carry on.

There were very few expenses in connection with the concert. This was due to the fact that those whom the girls asked for help, in any way, in the preparation, gave their services free of charge. The members of the Club appreciate the kindness very much and wish to take this opportunity to thank those who so willingly aided them.

The proceeds amounted to $177.65 and the expenses $11.40 leaving the handsome sum of $166.25 to be used for comforts for the Stouffville boys.

The Janey Canucks again demonstrated their abilities as entertainers and their popularity with the public when a crowded house greeted their concert in the Auditorium on Friday night. Since the organization of the club the Janey Canucks have had a phenomenal success and this is due in no little part to the untiring energy of the young ladies as well as to their popularity.

The comedy "Miss Fearless & Co." is a most suitable one for such an audience and occasion and it was rendered in a very creditable manner by those taking part. The following were the amateur actresses: Misses Lena Sanders, E. Cadieux, M. Boynton, C. McKenzie, G. Todd, F. Barker, H. Rateliff, Z. Clendenning, E. Boynton and Mrs. W. J. Thompson.

Master Earl Eteele, a talented young elocutionist, of Toronto, gave two splendid selections, Mrs. P. A. Morden rendered a vocal solo which was heartily applauded and Miss L. Arnold played a piano solo. Miss Goodwin and Mrs. Brace presided at the piano.

We congratulate the Janey Canucks on the splendid success of their entertainment.

A number of Oddfellows motored to Agincourt Sunday afternoon and united with their brethren there in their annual Church and Decoration Service. Rev. Mr. Anthony delivered an excellent sermon and the choir sang exceptionally well. Mr. E. W. Chamberlain, formerly of Claremont is a member of the choir.

DIVISION COURT.

A few unimportant cases were brought before the Division Court on Monday. Judge Denton presided.

W. H. Walker, thresherman, sued Jas. Boyd for payment for eight hours threshing. Boyd claimed that Walker did not begin work on time and that he overcharged him. Evidence showed that Walker's prices were not higher but lower than other threshermen in the district. His Honor awarded Walker 7 hours at $2.00 an hour.

The wisdom of having contracts made in writing was proved in the action of Milne Bros. against Mr. Malcom. The defendant, it was claimed, had contracted to sell his wheat to the plaintiff and had secured bags to take it to the mill. This, it was claimed, constituted a part fulfillment of the contract. The defendant denied having made any contract and evidence showed that at a later date he had paid for the bags. The case was dismissed without costs.

IN MEMORIAM

In ever loving memory of our dear mother and grandmother, Mrs. Elizabeth Brown, who passed away at Ballantrae, June 18, 1916.

Forget her? No we never will, For in our hearts she liveth still; Her memory is as dear to-day As at the hour she passed away. We loved her, yes we loved her but Jesus loved her more, And he has sweetly called her to yonder shining shore. The golden gates were opened a gentle voice said "Come" And with farewells unspoken she quietly entered home.

Daughter and Granddaughter

GUILFOYLE—BARTHOLOMEW

At five o'clock on Wednesday, June 12th at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis G. Bartholomew, Fairview boulevard, was the scene of a quiet house wedding when the marriage was solemnized by the Rev. R. J. Simpson, of the Danforth Ave. Methodist Church, of their daughter, Florence Lulu to Mr. Edward Guilfoyle, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Guilfoyle, of Lucan, Ont. The bride who was unattended, was given away by her father. She was wearing a simple gown of white Georgette crepe and creps de chine with tulle veil and orange blossoms. She carried a bridal bouquet of roses and sweet peas and wore a diamond pendant the gift of the groom. Miss Christie Johnson played the wedding marches and Miss A. Aitken sang "Because" while the register was being signed. Mr. and Mrs. Guilfoyle left to spend their honeymoon in London, Ont. and Port Stanley. On their return they will reside at 63 Jackman Avenue, Toronto.
