A man in British Columbia had begun to chop a huge tree. He had been cutting at it for a whole week. One day he was walking around it when he met another man chopping. "I have been chopping for a whole week," said the first man. Oh, thatis nothing, I have been chopping for two weeks," said the second.

Why should young ladies set good example? Because young men are apt to follow them.

Warning

Since the summer of 1917 some parties, old enough to know better, have for reasons known only to themselves, committed acts of vandalism on Summer Cottages and other property situated around Musselman's Lake. These acts have been of such a nature that were the doers handed over to the law they would find their acts were punish-The children are enjoying their able not by months behind prison bars, but by years. The owners of the property against which overt acts have been committed, have at considerable expense, been able to find out those who committed the acts of vandalism to property above mentioned. The owners of the properties are loath to ask the law for protection; but have reached the conclusion that patience with those who apparently take pleasure in breaking locks, entering and stealing articles from cottages and garages, damaging canoes, breaking down trees and tearing down signs, has ceased to be a virtue, and warning is here now given that any further acts of destruction will be brought home to the doer no matter what may be the cost. You have one week to replace the sign bearing the, wording "Rest Nook Beach, Private Property." You were watched tearing it down; bring it back and put

Mr. David Clarke., Stouffville, Ont., was the scene of a very pretty and interesting event on Wdnesday. June 11, when his elder daughter, Lula, Gertrude. was united in the holy bonds of matrimony to Ross E. Rateliff, only son of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Ratcliff, Stouffville. The ceremony was conducted by Rev. C. E. MacLeod of Stouffville, in the presence of about sixty guests, under an arch banked with forns and beautifully decorated with flowers. The bride who was given away by her father, entered the drawing-room to the strains of Lohengrin's Wedding March, played by Mrs. L. H. Clarke, of Torento. She was gowned in white georgette crepe and wore a veil of white net Pure Paris Green caught with orange blossoms. Her bouquet was of white roses. She was attended by her sister, Miss Elsie Clarke who was gowned in pink crepe de chine, and carried a bouquet of pink carnations. The groom was supported by his friend, Mr. D. Hisey who has just returned from overseas. After the signing of the register, during which Miss Lulu Wilson sang "Oh Perfect Love," the bride led the way to the lawn, where table 'were spread and prettily decorated for the wedding feast. The happy couple left later amid showers of confetti, for Toronto, Niagara Falls and Galt. On their return they will

James H. Ratcliff, Rezve of Stouffville

Ever since his arrival in Stouffville, 29 years ago, Jas. II. Ratcliff has taken a leading part in guiding the destinies of our beautiful village which owes him much for the energy and foresight he has shown. He has occupied the Reeve's chair on two occasions, six years in all, and it was during his first term of office as Reeve that the water works by-law was passed, chiefly through his energy. A good deal of opposition was encountered but the opponents aftewards saw and admitted their mistake. "Jim" has a natural gift as an orator inherited, no doubt, from his father, Rev. Frederick Ratcliff, and his grandfather, Rev. John Gerrie, two prominent ministers of the Baptist denomination. Being a preacher's son he gained a wide experience from change of residence in his early days. He was born at Wingham, Ont. but when he was eight months old, his parents moved to Dundas where they resided for nine years, moving from there to Smith, near Peterboro'. He walked five miles every day to Peterboro' High School where he finished his educational career in spite of a tendency to get into mischief. After three years in the north country he came to Stouffville and opened the grocery business with which he is still connected, one of the largest grocery businesses in the Province. In politics he is a red hot Liberal and not a bit ashamed of it; he is a member and leader in the Baptist denomination. His favorite game is English croquet. He is always ready to champion any cause for the public good.
