GILLION—HOLDEN
A very pretty but quiet wedding was solemnized at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Truman F. Holden on Wednesday, June seventh at 3 o'clock, when their second daughter, Zella Irene, was united in marriage to Maurice Bertram, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Gillion. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. A. Burgess.

The bride, who was given away by her father, looked very charming in white satin and lace, carrying white roses and carnations. The bridesmaid, Miss Luella Holden of Toronto, wore pink taffeta and carried pink roses. Mr. Joseph Silver-sides acted as best man. The groom's gift to the bride was a very beautiful necklace, set with a diamond and whole pearls. The Wedding March was played by the bride's little niece, Miss Erma Holden.
After a generous repast the happy couple left by motor for Toronto, Guelph and other points west. On their return they will reside on the ninth line, Markham.

Mr. Editor,—In the notes on the new library last week, some mistakes in copy were made, the chief of which was in the last sentence. This sentence should read:—As soon as plans are obtained within the limits of our funds, not within the limits of our friends. Thanking you for kindly making this correction.
I remain,
A member of the Library Board

I appreciate the manner in which you have drawn our attention to this mistake, as this issue was printed in my absence.—Ed.

CHURCH OF CHRIST

The June Meeting of Churches of Christ of Ont., which was held at Stouffville for the first time, on the 3rd, 4th, and 5th, was a grand success and one of the best yet held by the churches of Christ in Ontario. About 250 visiting brethren attended the meetings. Speakers and Evangelists from U. S. addressed the meetings, namely J. W. Shepherd, Detroit Mich., who gave a comforting address on "The Inheritance of God's Elect." W. D. Campbell, Detroit, Mich., set forth in his simple and clear style "The Church which Christ Built," as revealed in the New Testament, and showed how it can be and is reproduced to-day. D. H. Jackson of Toronto gave a most inspiring address on "A Message for the Twentieth Century," which was the same message given by the inspired Apostles of Jesus to the first century, in which Christ and Him Crucified was fully set forth. Chas. S. Black, Detroit, E. L. Jorgenson, Louisville, Ky., C. C. Merritt, St. Louis also gave short talks, exalting the Word of God as our only inspired guide-book.

Other Evangelists from Ontario were L. J. Keffer, Beamsville, O. E. Talman, Jordan, Dr. O. H. Talman, Owen Sound, R. G. Schell, Toronto, M. Watterworth, Toronto, C. W. Petch, Pine Orchard. Many other elders and teachers took active part in the services. A strong defence of the Bible as the inspired revelation from God, and the old Jerusalem Gospel as that alone which could meet the needs of men of to-day, was made throughout the meeting. The attendance on Lord's Day ranged from 450 to 600 people and the Church of Christ at Stouffville was well pleased with the success of the meetings. They wish to thank the people of the village who offered their homes and hospitality to visitors, who were greatly impressed by the kind and generous hospitality shown to them by the people of Stouffville.
Chas. W. Petch.
